runaway productions from Hollywood use Vancouver to stand in for other locations from Seattle USA to Lagos Nigeria Analyses of 38 different film scenes reveal the cinematic city in its myriad forms while spotlight essays provide insight into the creativity and contradictions of Vancouver's film industry throughout the ages The essays examine the following topics the masking of Vancouver's indigenous stories in filmic representations of the city Australian screenwriter James Clavell's Vancouver set debut The Sweet and the Bitter Sylvia Spring's Madeleine Is the first female directed feature in Canada Jonathan Kaplan's The Accused for which Jodie Foster won an Oscar and the use of Vancouver locations in a number of US television crime series World Film Locations Vancouver offers new perspectives on the west coast city and in doing so sheds further light upon the relationship between the movies and the metropolis

Literature and the Glocal City Ana María Fraile-Marcos, 2014-07-17 The modern city is a space that can simultaneously represent the principles of its homeland alongside its own unique blend of the cultures that intermingle within its city limits This book makes an intervention in Canadian literary criticism by foregrounding both globalism which is increasingly perceived as the state of the art literary paradigm and the city These are two significant axes of contemporary culture and identity that were previously disregarded by a critical tradition built around the importance of space and place in Canadian writing Yet as relevant as the turn to the city and to globalism may be this collection's most notable contribution lies in linking the notion of glocality that is the intermeshing of local and global forces to representations of subjectivity in the material and figurative space of the Canadian city Dealing with oppositional discourses as multiculturalism postcolonialism feminism diaspora and environmentalism this book is an essential reference for any scholar with an interest in these areas
