Constantinople 1 Edwin Grosvenor:

Istanbul - Kushta - Constantinople Christoph Herzog, Richard Wittmann, 2018-10-10 Istanbul Kushta Constantinople presents twelve studies that draw on contemporary life narratives that shed light on little explored aspects of nineteenth century Ottoman Istanbul As a broad category of personal writing that goes beyond the traditional confines of the autobiography life narratives range from memoirs letters reports travelogues and descriptions of daily life in the city and its different neighborhoods By focusing on individual experiences and perspectives life narratives allow the historian to transcend rigid political narratives and to recover lost voices especially of those underrepresented groups including women and members of non Muslim communities The studies of this volume focus on a variety of narratives produced by Muslim and Christian women by non Muslims and Muslims as well as by natives and outsiders alike They dispel European Orientalist stereotypes and cross class divides and ethnic identities Travel accounts of outsiders provide us with valuable observations of daily life in the city that residents often overlooked Mark Twain's Notebooks & Journals, Volume I Mark Twain, 1976-01-14 In the summer of 1855 when the nineteen year old Sam Clemens traveled from Saint Louis to Hannibal Paris and Florida Missouri and then to Keokuk Iowa he carried with him a notebook in which he entered French lessons phrenological information miscellaneous observations and reminders about errands to be performed This first notebook thus took the random form which would characterize most of those to follow About the text In order to avoid editorial misrepresentation and to preserve the texture of autograph documents the entries are presented in their original often unfinished form with most of Clemens irregularities inconsistencies errors and cancellations unchanged Clemens cancellations are included in the text enclosed in angle brackets thus editorially supplied conjectural readings are in square brackets thus word hyphens within square brackets stand for unreadable letters thus and editorial remarks are italicized and enclosed in square brackets thus blank page A slash separates alternative readings which Clemens left unresolved thus word word The separation of entries is indicated on the printed page by extra space between lines when the end of a manuscript entry coincides with the end of a page of the printed text the symbol follows the entry A full discussion of textual procedures accompanies the tables of emendation and details of inscription in the Textual Apparatus at the end of each volume specific textual problems are explained in headnotes or footnotes when unusual situations warrant Constantinople Edwin Grosvenor, 2015-01-26 TO the Western eye there seems to be always hanging before Constantinople a veil of mystery and separation Its remoteness from Great Britain and America in territorial distance and antiquity of history is intensified manyfold by that other remoteness caused by variety of races languages customs and creeds It is difficult for the foreign resident to know it well and for the passing stranger or tourist utterly impossible It has been my precious privilege to enjoy unusual opportunities for learning the story and entering into the life of the kaleidoscopic city The preparation of this book has been a labor of delight but it has occupied many years No man could have a more fascinating theme Even as

Constantinople has a charm for all classes of mankind I have sought to make this not a volume for any one narrow range of readers but a book for all THE reception accorded to Constantinople both in this country and Europe exceeded my most sanguine expectations A book which had for its theme a capital at once so famous so fascinating and yet so little known was doubtless sure of finding a place None the less am I grateful to the press and the public for their cordial welcome Though this is a carefully revised edition as few changes as possible in the original have been made and the work is substantially the same as when first published The next score of years will transform Constantinople Much that is described in these pages will soon vanish and the tourist seek it in vain But as long as this book lasts it will preserve the careful panorama of the capital as it was in the last year of the nineteenth century EDWIN A GROSVENOR The National Union Catalog,
