Contemporary Issues In Education At The Interface Probing The Boundaries:

Current Issues in Teacher Education Cynthia A. Lassonde, 2008 In this edited volume by experts in the field of teacher education Current Issues in Teacher Education combines forces from the United States and Canada to present and discuss positions on current topics and concerns in the field of teacher education It provides an overview and multiple perspectives of issues rather than one author's position or viewpoint This will allow the reader to reflect on multiple perspectives and to form his or her opinion and route for further action or discussion Written in a reader friendly style with accessible language the book avoids the use of highly technical terms The Idea of Education David Seth Preston, 2003 This book represents a position statement from the intellectually vibrant and challenging debate that emanated from the inaugural conference project launch entitled The Idea of Education held at Mansfield College Oxford in July 2002 The book conveys a wide spectrum of views about the idea of education in recognition of the fact that the idea is not as straightforward as it may appear on the surface It seems the universities are not alone in this apparent uncertainty of definition Further Education seems equally nonplussed as regard its purpose or raison d'être Furthermore even for those within the sector it appears to be a point of much contention as to where Further Education ends and Higher Education begins The book is divided into three main sections The Current Structures of Education Issues within Contemporary Education and The Ambitions of Education The chapters wrestle sometimes at variance with each other with the paradoxes and concerns felt by each writer grappling with the idea of education Routledge International Handbook of Nurse Education Sue Dyson, Margaret McAllister, 2019-11-26 While vast numbers of nurses across the globe contribute in all areas of healthcare delivery from primary care to acute and long term care in community settings there are significant differences in how they are educated as well as the precise nature of their practice This comprehensive handbook provides a research informed and international perspective on the critical issues in contemporary nurse education As an applied discipline nursing is implemented differently depending on the social political and cultural climate in any given context These factors impact on education as much as on practice and are reflected in debates around the value of accredited programmes and on the job training apprenticeship undergraduate and postgraduate pathways into nursing Engaging with these debates amongst others the authors collected here discuss how through careful design and delivery of nursing curricula nurses can be prepared to understand complex care processes complex healthcare technologies complex patient needs and responses to therapeutic interventions and complex organizations The book discusses historical perspectives on how nurses should be educated contemporary issues facing educators teaching and learning strategies the politics of nurse education education for advanced nursing practice global approaches and educating for the future Bringing together leading authorities from across the world to reflect on past present and future approaches to nurse education and nursing pedagogy this handbook provides a cutting edge overview for all educators researchers and policy makers concerned with nurse education Contemporary Issues in Education David Seth Preston, 2005 Following the warm reception given to The Idea of Education a volume of papers in this same Rodopi Series a second conference around similar themes was held at Oxford University and this book is the result This edited book provides the reader with a fairly representative coherent and cohesive statement of the 2003 Oxford conference Quoting the Chancellor of Paris University with regretting that in the old days lectures were more frequent but now the time taken for lectures is being spent in meeting and discussions our keynote Frank McMahon made the profound observation that some of the issues around education have been with us for a surprisingly long time Notwithstanding the longevity of some questions concerning education this book details and examines contemporary educational practice and theory and as such it is a very important work

Euroscepticism Robert Harmsen, Menno Spiering, 2004 The accelerated pace of European integration since the early 1990s has been accompanied by the emergence of increasingly prominent and multiform oppositions to the process The term Euroscepticism has appeared with growing frequency in a range of political media and academic discourses Yet the label is applied to a wide range of different and occasionally contradictory phenomena Although originally associated with an English exceptionalism relative to a Continental project of political and economic integration the term Euroscepticism is now also identified with a more general questioning of European Union institutions and policies which finds diverse expressions across the entire continent This volume of European Studies brings together an interdisciplinary team of contributors to provide one of the first major multinational surveys of the growth of these Eurosceptic tendencies Individual chapters provide detailed examinations of developments in France Germany the Netherlands the United Kingdom Ireland Sweden Austria the Czech Republic Poland and Switzerland Overall the volume draws a distinctive portrait of contemporary Euroscepticism situating the phenomenon not only relative to the progress of European integration but also in relation to broader questions concerned with the evolution of party politics and the reshaping of national identities At the Interface, 2004-01-01 In a world increasingly characterised by perpetual re invention through the dynamic flows of capital persons and ideas understanding change and transformation is an imperative The purpose of this book is a first step in a project to engage the dynamics of transformation at the interface of culture and politics through contextualisation reflection and a sharing of intellectual resources Bringing together the work of academics from a range of disciplines who share an overarching aim to map such transformations the volume covers themes ranging from popular culture the Internet to film and cinema Casting a contemporary gaze on cultural phenomena the contributors all seek to trace trajectories of change and continuity from within their own specific field using a range of approaches from theoretical reflection to empirical case studies Of general interest to students of the humanities and social sciences and of particular interest for students of cultural studies and communication at all levels this volume constitutes a unique opportunity to reflect on recent transformations but also on the persistence of certain cultural and political practices Virtual Learning and Higher Education David Seth Preston, 2004 Preliminary Material David Seth Preston Preface D S Preston Frontierland Exploring the Uses of Virtual

Participation and Learning Alan Reid, Bjarne Bruun Jensen, Jutta Nickel, Venka Simovska, 2007-10-12 The Research in Participatory Education Network RIPEN was initiated by the Research Programme for Environmental and Health Education at the Danish School of Education University of Aarhus in 2003 It embraces a broad spectrum of researchers scholars students and practitioners of participatory education working in or from Europe North America Africa and Australasia Given the international scope of the network and the range of interests it now has as initiators and early participants in the network the editorial team invited RIPEN to discuss what a critical perspective on participatory approaches to education might mean for education and the environment health and sustainability and how network members might research and substantiate their claims and arguments Following the introductory chapter on the scope of this collection 19 chapters illustrate the contributors responses to that invitation Our focus on critical perspectives was prompted by earlier work by Majid Rahnema in Wolfgang Sachs's 1992 Development Dictionary Critiquing concepts of participation in a volume that set out to stimulate cultural historical and anthropological debate on the key concepts of development Rahnema p 126 wrote Participation which is also a form of intervention is too serious and ambivalent a matter to be taken lightly or reduced to an amoeba word lacking any precise meaning or a slogan or fetish or for that matter only an instrument or methodology Integrated Marketing Communication Christina L. McDowell Marinchak, Jeanne M. Persuit, 2016-09-22 Integrated Marketing Communication IMC is a holistic approach to the areas of advertising public relations branding promotions event and experiential marketing and related fields of strategic communication Integrated Marketing Communication Creating Spaces for Engagement explores how IMC can open up spaces for engagement in our classrooms and our communities The breadth of the contributors is in the spirit of IMC examining public and private sector organizations that offer products and services while relying on various methodologies and theoretical approaches with particular emphasis on rhetoric philosophy of communication qualitative research and historical perspectives in IMC Moreover each chapter considers IMC from a different communicative perspective including strategic communication philosophy of communication rhetorical theory health communication crisis and risk communication communication theory and mass communication
