Contemporary Cinema Of Latin America Contemporary Cinema Of Latin America:

Contemporary Cinema of Latin America Deborah Shaw, 2003-03-15 This book focuses on a selection of internationally known Latin American films. The chapters are organized around national categories grounding the readings not only in the context of social and political conditions but also in those of each national film industry. It is a very useful text for students of the region's cultural output as well as for students of film studies who wish to learn more about the innovative and often controversial films discussed.

Contemporary Latin American Cinema Deborah Shaw, 2007-04-09 This engaging book explores some of the most significant films to emerge from Latin America since 2000, an extraordinary period of international recognition for the region's cinema. Each chapter assesses an individual film with some contributors considering the reasons for the unprecedented commercial and critical successes of movies such as City of God, The Motorcycle Diaries, Y tu mamá también and Nine Queens, while others examine why equally important films failed to break out on the international circuit. Written by leading specialists, the chapters not only offer textual analysis but also trace the films' social context and production conditions as well as critical national and transnational issues. Their well-rounded analyses provide a rich picture of the state of contemporary filmmaking in a range of Latin American countries. Nuanced and thought-provoking, the readings in this book will provide invaluable interpretations for students and scholars of Latin American film.

Contributions by Sarah Barrow, Nuala Finnegan, David William Foster, Miraim Haddu, Geoffrey Kantaris, Deborah Shaw, Lisa Shaw, Rob Stone, Else R P Vieira, and Claire Williams.

The Child in Contemporary Latin American Cinema Deborah Martin, 2019-01-04 What is the child for Latin American cinema? This book aims to answer that question, tracing the common tendencies of the representation of the child in the cinema of Latin American countries and demonstrating the place of the child in the movements, genres, and styles that have defined that cinema. Deborah Martin combines theoretical readings of the child in cinema and culture with discussions of the place of the child in specific national, regional, and political contexts to develop in-depth analyses and establish regional comparisons and trends. She pays particular attention to the narrative and stylistic techniques at play in the creation of the child's perspective and to ways in which the presence of the child precipitates experiments with film aesthetics. Bringing together fresh readings of well-known films with attention to a range of little-studied works, The Child in Contemporary Latin American Cinema examines films from the recent and contemporary period, focussing on topics such as the death of the child in street child films, the role of the child in post-dictatorship filmmaking, and the use of child characters to challenge gender and sexual ideologies. The book also aims to place those analyses in a historical context, tracing links with important precursors and paying attention to the legacy of the child's figuring in the mid-century movements of melodrama and the New Latin American Cinema.

The Question of Class in Contemporary Latin American Cinema María Mercedes Vázquez Vázquez, 2020-07-06 The Question of Class in Contemporary Latin American Cinema responds to the renewed interest in class within and outside academia by examining the aesthetics and politics of class in a representative selection of films from the contemporary cinemas of Venezuela Cuba Mexico Brazil and Argentina It explores the relationship of cinematic practices to conflicting socio political transformations taking place in these five countries such as the intensification of neoliberalism the Turn to the Left and the growth of the middle classes in the period from 2003 to 2015 Utilizing a critical comparative method it sheds a critical light on the presumed depoliticization or new aestheticized politicization of contemporary Latin American cinema The combined textual and industrial analyses of films from strikingly different cinemas and directors through the lenses of class allows for a contextualization of this trend and the observation of its limitations Furthermore this book distinguishes cinematic figurations that correspond to new conceptualizations of class introduced in social studies from figurations of class that have yet to be conceptualized

New Transnationalisms in Contemporary Latin American Cinemas Dolores Tierney, 2018-01-23 In the late 1990s and early 2000s Latin American films like Amores perros Y tu mama tambien and Cidade de Deus enjoyed an unprecedented level of critical and commercial success in the world market Benefitting from external financial and or creative input these films were considered examples of transnational cinema Through a textual analysis of six filmmakers Alejandro Gonzalez Inarritu Alfonso Cuaron Guillermo del Toro Fernando Meirelles Walter Salles and Juan Jose Campanella this book examines these transnational films and the subsequent wave of commercially successful deterritorialized films by the same directors It argues that although films produced within the structures of the United States film industry may have been commercially successful they are not necessarily apolitical or totally divorced from key notions of national or continental identity Bringing a new perspective to the films of Latin America s transnational auteurs this is a major contribution towards understanding how different genres function across different cultures Queer Issues in Contemporary Latin American Cinema David William Foster, 2009-08-17 Viewing contemporary Latin American films through the lens of queer studies reveals that many filmmakers are exploring issues of gender identity and sexual difference as well as the homophobia that attempts to defeat any challenge to the heterosexual norms of patriarchal culture In this study of queer issues in Latin American cinema David William Foster offers highly perceptive queer readings of fourteen key films to demonstrate how these cultural products promote the principles of an antiheterosexist stance while they simultaneously disclose how homophobia enforces the norms of heterosexuality Foster examines each film in terms of the ideology of its narrative discourse whether homoerotic desire or a critique of patriarchal heterosexism and its implications for Latin American social life and human rights His analyses underscore the difficulties involved in constructing a coherent and convincing treatment of the complex issues involved in critiquing the patriarchy from perspectives associated with queer studies The book will be essential reading for everyone working in queer studies and film studies The films discussed in this book are De eso no se habla I Don't Want to Talk about It El lugar sin límites The Place without Limits Aqueles dois Those Two Convivencia Living Together Conducta impropia Improper Conduct The Disappearance of García Lorca La Virgen de los Sicarios Our Lady of the Assassins Doña Herlinda y su hijo Doña Herlinda and Her Son No se lo digas a nadie Don't Tell Anyone En el paraíso no existe el dolor There Is No Suffering in Paradise A intrusa The Interloper Plata quemada Burnt Money Afrodita Aphrodite Fresa y chocolate Strawberry and Chocolate The Child in Contemporary Latin American Cinema Deborah Martin, 2018 Framing Latin American Cinema Ann Marie Stock, 1997 Proposes new critical directions in Latin American film Framing Latin American Cinema embraces multiple modes of scholarship juxtaposing feature films and documentaries and locating cinema within larger cultural debates Considering works from Argentina Brazil Cuba Colombia Guatemala Mexico and Venezuela the contributors address a range of topics including studies of directors like Roman Chalbaud and Fernando Pérez examinations of viewer patterns and critical tendencies and analyses of Mexican melodrama revolutionary films and such internationally acclaimed works as Dona Herlinda and A Place in the World
