Publisher description Choose Life Rowan Williams, 2013-02-28 The addresses that Rowan Williams has given in Canterbury Cathedral for Christmas and Easter are small masterpieces of this kind They constitute part of Rowan Williams essential legacy to Christian believers With a new introduction by Dr Williams this is the first time these pieces have appeared in print Perfect reading material for Lent or Advent The Sparkle from the Coal Barbara Howard, 2024-10-31

Perhaps one of the least appreciated aspects of Rowan Williams is his theology of imagination Seeking to fill this gap this book explores the imaginative impulse operative in Rowan Williams theology and poetry which centres around the notion of divine desire and the way in which imagination can reveal possibility even in the bleakest of circumstances Drawing on his poetic work as well as his theological writing the book explores how Williams theology leads us to a fresh understanding of the ways in which the renewing and enabling energy of the Holy Spirit is ever active within and beyond the Church in enabling human imaginations to cooperate with the divine energy of love in bringing creation to fulfilment Jesus in the Theology of Rowan Williams Brett Gray, 2016-11-17 Brett Gray traces the portrayal of Christ that emerges throughout Williams diverse writings including in his engagements with literature and philosophy What emerges is a vision of Jesus that grows from the roots of the Christian tradition but is pronounced in a contemporary idiom and sensitive to modern concerns Although attentive to the broad sweep of the Christian tradition Williams Christology is also seen in this book to be a particular British artefact shaped in dialogue with thinkers such as Donald MacKinnon and Gillian Rose What is ultimately brought to the surface in this work is the profoundly hopeful if frequently under pronounced eschatology underlying Williams Christology Jesus is the last word changing creation s possibilities and summoning it into an endless and vivifying journey

Making See C. M. A. van Ekris, 2018-06-20 What is theologically and homiletically happening in prophetic sermons This empirical theological study offers an analysis of the prophetic dimension in contemporary practices of preaching including sermons from Bonhoeffer King and Tutu and from Dutch local contexts After a phenomenological opening five theological concepts are extracted from the studied sermons exposing destructiva interrupting dominant discourses recognising the Word overcoming destructiva and edifying the congregation In this study prophetic speech is reconstructed as an illuminative interplay between epiphanic and inductive aspects Freelance Christianity Vance G. Morgan, 2017-06-08 How can you be a Christian and a philosopher at the same time This question has haunted Vance Morgan ever since it was posed by a good friend almost thirty years ago Freelance Christianity is rooted in Morgan s conviction that far from being fundamentally opposed truly philosophical energies and a commitment to a vibrant lived faith are complementary mutually supporting and marks of a healthy quest for the divine This book brings together his training as a philosopher and experience as a person of faith in an investigation of how the life of faith can be lived with a rigorous commitment to the pursuit of knowledge in real time The Nature of Christian Doctrine Alister E.
