Christ Across The Disciplines Past Present Future 2013 10 03:

Christ Across the Disciplines Roger Lundin, 2013-10-03 In Christ across the Disciplines a group of distinguished scholars from across the theological spectrum explores the dynamic relationship between the Christian faith and the life of the mind Although the essays in this volume are rooted in a rich understanding of the past they focus primarily on how Christian students teachers and scholars might best meet the challenges of intellectual and cultural life in a global world This book ranges widely over the broad terrain of contemporary academic and cultural life covering such topics as the enormous growth of political activism in late twentieth century evangelicalism the dynamics of literature and faith in the African American experience the dramatic implications of globalization for those who profess Christ and practice the life of the mind and more

Faith, Life, and Learning Online Brant M. Himes, John W. Washatka, 2022-04-08 Faith Life and Learning Online is an invitation for faith based institutions to take bold steps toward integrating a holistic mission of spiritual formation into the online learning environment For Christian higher education faith integration is a matter of mission not modality Regardless of whether learning happens in the traditional classroom through hybrid models or exclusively online Christian universities have a missional mandate to continue their long legacy of forming students of competence and character While traditional campuses continue to provide unique and meaningful opportunities for students to grow in their faith online learning has opened new avenues for engagement and development of spiritual formation As such all Christian higher education institutions are now called to take advantage of this unique technological moment to continue to offer transformative opportunities for the holistic integration of faith life and learning in the online environment

A Patterned Life Eileen Bebbington, 2014-10-20 David Bebbington one of the most influential historians working today is widely acknowledged as a world authority on religious history He is also recognized for having devised the Bebbington Quadrilateral as the standard definition of evangelicalism one of the most important global religious movements of the twenty first century In this lively study Eileen Bebbington who first met her husband as an undergraduate at the University of Cambridge over forty years ago paints a vivid portrait of the life and thought of this leading scholar Many who know Professor Bebbington s most celebrated books such as Evangelicalism in Modern Britain Patterns in History The Mind of Gladstone and Victorian Religious Revivals will be delighted to learn that his first such effort was actually A History of the Ancient World with Which Is Incorporated Classical Mythology a duly footnoted four volume work written at the age of nine A Patterned Life is much more than an account of the intellectual development of a preeminent historian it is a study of a life lived as a disciple of Jesus Christ a human and often humorous account of eccentricities an honest acknowledgment of trials and an inspiring witness to one person s efforts to integrate a deep earnest Christian faith with the best of modern thought

Annunciations: Sacred Music for the Twenty-First Century George Corbett, 2019-05-01 Our contemporary culture is communicating ever increasingly through the visual through film and through music This makes it ever more urgent for theologians to explore the resources of art for enriching our understanding and experience of the Judeo Christian tradition Annunciations Sacred Music for the twenty First Century edited by George Corbett answers this need evaluating the relationship between the sacred and the composition performance and appreciation of music Through the theme of annunciations this volume interrogates how when why through and to whom God communicates in the Old and New Testaments In doing so it tackles the intimate relationship between Scriptural reflection and musical practice in the past its present condition and what the future might hold Annunciations comprises three parts Part I sets out flexible theological and compositional frameworks for a constructive relationship between the sacred and music Part II presents the reflections of theologians and composers involved in collaborating on new pieces of sacred choral music alongside the six new scores and links to the recordings Part III considers the reality of programming and performing sacred works today This volume provides an indispensable resource for scholars and artists working at the interface between theology and the arts and for those involved in sacred music However it will also be of interest to anyone concerned with the ways in which the Divine communicates through word and artistry to humanity

God Without Measure: Working Papers in Christian Theology John Webster, 2015-11-19 In this second volume Webster progresses the discussion to include topics in moral theology and the theology of created intellect An opening chapter sets the scene by considering the relation of christology and moral theology This is followed by a set of reflections on a range of ethical themes the nature of human dignity mercy the place of sorrow in Christian existence the nature of human courage dying and rising with Christ as a governing motif in the Christian moral life the presence of sin in human speech Webster closes with studies of the nature of intellectual life and of the intellectual task of Christian theology The Oxford Handbook of Environmental History Andrew Christian Isenberg, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Environmental History draws on a wealth of new scholarship to offer diverse perspectives on the state of the field World Christianity Tan, Jonathan Y., Tran, Anh Q., 2016-04-13 New Atheism: Critical Perspectives and Contemporary Debates Christopher R. Cotter, Philip Andrew Quadrio, Jonathan Tuckett, 2017-06-07 Whether understood in a narrow sense as the popular works of a small number of white male authors or as a larger more diffuse movement twenty first century scholars journalists and activists from all sides in the atheism versus theism debate have noted the emergence of a particular form of atheism frequently dubbed New Atheism The present collection has been brought together to provide a scholarly yet accessible consideration of the place and impact of New Atheism in the contemporary world Combining traditional and innovative approaches chapters draw on the insights of philosophers religious studies scholars sociologists anthropologists and literary critics to provide never before seen insights into the relationship between New Atheism science gender sexuality space philosophy fiction and much more With contributions from Australia Germany and the United Kingdom the volume also presents diversity in regard to religious irreligious commitment with contributions from atheists theists and more agnostic orientations New Atheism Critical Perspectives and Contemporary Debates features an up to date overview of current research on New Atheism a Foreword from Stephen Bullivant co editor of The Oxford Handbook of Atheism and eleven new chapters with extensive bibliographies that will be important to both a general audience and to those conducting research in this area It provides a much needed fresh look at a contentious phenomenon and will hopefully encourage the cooperation and dialogue which has predominantly been lacking in relevant contemporary debates Sarah Osborn's World Catherine A. Brekus,2013-01-08 In 1743 sitting quietly with pen in hand Sarah Osborn pondered how to tell the story of her life how to make sense of both her spiritual awakening and the sudden destitution of her family Remarkably the memoir she created that year survives today as do more than two thousand additional pages she composed over the following three decades Sarah Osborn's World is the first book to mine this remarkable woman's prolific personal and spiritual record Catherine Brekus recovers the largely forgotten story of Sarah Osborn's life as one of the most charismatic female religious leaders of her time while also connecting her captivating story to the rising evangelical movement in eighteenth century America A schoolteacher in Rhode Island a wife and a mother Sarah Osborn led a remarkable revival in the 1760s that brought hundreds of people including many slaves to her house each week Her extensive written record encompassing issues ranging from the desire to be born again to a suspicion of capitalism provides a unique vantage point from which to view the emergence of evangelicalism Brekus sets Sarah Osborn's experience in the context of her revivalist era and expands our understanding of the birth of the evangelical movement a movement that transformed Protestantism in the decades before the American Revolution Law and Humanities Russell Sandberg,Daniel Newman,2024-01-09 This edited collection provides the first accessible introduction to Law and Humanities Each chapter explores the nature development and possible further trajectory of a disciplinary law and field Each chapter is written by an expert in the respective field and addresses how the two disciplines of law and the other respective field operate This edited work therefore fulfils a real and pressing need to provide an accessible introductory but critical guide to law and humanities as a whole by exploring how each disciplinary law and field has developed contributes to further scrutinizing the content and role of law and how it can contribute and be enriched by being understood within the law and humanities tradition as a whole
