Christianity And The Making Of The Modern Family:

Christianity and the Making of the Modern Family Rosemary R. Ruether, 2001-07-13 How did a religion whose founding proponents advocated a shocking disregard of earthly ties come to extol the virtues of the traditional family In this richly textured history of the relationship between Christianity and the family Rosemary Radford Ruether traces the development of these centerpieces of modern life to reveal the misconceptions at the heart of the family values debate Sexual Virtue Richard W. McCarty, 2015-01-08 Uses virtue ethics to offer a sexual ethics inclusive of LGBT and straight people one that challenges the longstanding procreative patriarchal norm Richard W McCarty offers a compassionate and inclusive conception of sexual virtue one that liberates Christians from traditional patriarchal requirements for heterosexuality marriage and procreation Daring to depart from ongoing debates about what Aristotle or Aquinas had to say this book sets a new course centered on virtue ethics It employs new insights from the sciences biblical scholarship analyses of church traditions and revisionist natural law thinking Eschewing simple deconstruction of traditional Christian norms for sexual morality McCarty offers constructive ideas about what might count as real human goods for people in a wide variety of sexual relationships Recreation relational intimacy and selective acts of procreation are three ends of sexual virtue that promote human happiness and can be appreciated in a broad Christian framework While primarily referencing the Roman Catholic intellectual tradition McCarty s work is also vital and accessible to those from Protestant backgrounds Addressed to LGBT and straight readers Sexual Virtue provides a compassionate sexual ethics for our time Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith, 2008 Griffiths narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to

The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community Singleness and Marriage after Christendom Lina Toth, 2021-07-28 Momentous change is taking place in Western societies and churches Singleness is on the rise along with growing interest in different pathways to human happiness However we still largely consider coupledness as the norm and a symbol of the good life This is especially true in the Christian context where the decline of traditional marriage and family patterns is often presented as an erosion of the Christian way of living Yet when the church was very young the world was also very concerned with the demise of traditional family ways but the culprits accused of destroying family values were none other than Christians A considerable number of them willingly chose to forego marriage embracing Jesus's vision of a new kind of a family the church This book follows the changes in the practice of marriage and singleness from those early days of the Christian movement to our modern preoccupation with romance and coupledness as essential ingredients of a happy fulfilled life It argues that the current surge in the number of single people is actually an opportunity for us to reconsider both singleness and marriage in the larger context of a community of faith Sexual Reformation? Manitza Kotzé, Nadia Marais, Nina Müller van Velden, 2022-02-28 Inasmuch as sex and sexuality are not words often spoken from pulpits and in academic theological circles a vast number of utterances have been made in the name of so called Christian values and biblical views on sex and sexuality These are often given from moral ethical perspectives and seemingly very prescriptive who should have sex with whom when sex should take place which purposes sex should serve and especially when sex is wrong Moreover often there is little or no recognition of the complexities surrounding human sexuality resulting in what appears to be a blueprint for sexuality applicable to all persons This volume contains fourteen theological and ethical reflections by South African scholars on human sexuality with the aim of exploring what a sexual reformation within Christian dialogue might entail Presented in three sections namely systematic theological reflections biblical reflections and ethical reflections the essays represent a range of topics from a variety of perspectives Luther and marriage sexual abuse in the Catholic Church body theology and the sexual revolution reproductive technologies sexuality and reproduction reproductive loss hermeneutical choices and gender reformation in South Africa queer engagements with bra Joseph explorations on Paul and sex rape culture and violent deities the church's moral authority and sexual ethics practical theological considerations regarding infertility empirical research on masculinities in Zambia and the lived experience of transgender people in African Independent Churches Gendering Christian Ethics Jenny

Daggers, 2012-11-30 Gendering Christian Ethics brings together ethical reflections by a new generation of European and American researchers Contributors are well versed in feminist theology and feminist theory chapters build on foundations laid by pioneers who first raised questions of gender and Christianity Christian ethics have a bearing on the conduct of Christian theology church or institution and on distinctive Christian ways of engaging with the wider world Gendering Christian Ethics addresses these inner and outer dynamics Reweaving the Relational Mat Joan Filemoni-Tofaeono, Lydia Johnson, 2016-06-16 Reweaving the Relational Mat is an integrative response to the problem of violence against women which grounds theological and sociological analysis in the praxis of Oceanian Christian women's experiences of violence. It focuses on the collusion of the church in the problem of violence against women by critiquing the ways in which its theology and practices have contributed to power over ways of relating. Employing the Oceanian metaphor of weaving the mat, the analysis unravels the patriarchal relational mat paving the way for a constructive reweaving of a Christocentric egalitarian relational mat. The study begins by unravelling the correlation between violence and the ideology of patriarchy. It then highlights the various strands of violence against women and examines the complex mosaic of socio-cultural sources and manifestations of violence against women in Oceania. This leads to an analysis of the interwoven strands of religion and violence focusing particularly on the church's captivity to patriarchy. The ensuing explication of problematic theological and biblical interpretations and church practices ends with a critique of male clergy power particularly as it functions in the Oceanian context. This leads to an examination of the relationship between flawed theological education and violence against women. Case studies of violence against women in the Oceanian theological education setting are analysed. The subsequent reweaving of the relational mat issues forth in specific challenges to church leaders, theological educators and church women. T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P. Koster, Ernst M.

Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions, minority communities, non-Christian traditions or non-theological disciplines. Structured in seven main parts, the handbook explores: 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change; 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration; 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within; 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God's work; and 5 God's identity and character; 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis; and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race, gender, class, other animals, religious diversity, geographical divides and carbon mitigation. This rich ecumenical cross-cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in-depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change. The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality, and Gender

Adrian Thatcher, 2014-11-13 The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality and Gender presents an unrivalled overview of the theological study of sexuality and gender. Not merely contentious and pervasive topics, sexuality and gender have escalated in importance within theology. Theologians increasingly agree that even the very doctrine of God cannot be contemplated without a prior grappling with each. Featuring 41 newly commissioned essays written by the foremost scholars in the discipline, this authoritative collection presents and develops the latest thinking in the area. Divided into eight thematic sections, the Handbook explores key methodological approaches, concepts and issues as well as current controversies within various denominations. Selected essays draw on reason as a distinct source of theology, discussing evolutionary biology and behavioural genetics psychology anthropological research philosophical research and queer theory It examines the history of in theologies of sexuality and gender with close analysis of the Bible and the Christian tradition The final section considers theology in relation to different expressions of sexual identities This volume is an essential reference for students and scholars which will also stimulate further research Christian Homes Tine Van Osselaer, Patrick Pasture, 2014-09-29

Christian ideas on family religion and the home in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The cult of domesticity has often been linked to the privatization of religion and the idealisation of the motherly ideal of the angel in the house This book revisits the Christian home of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and sheds new light on the stereotypical distinction between the private and public spheres and their inhabitants Emphasizing the importance of patriarchal domesticity during the period and the frequent blurring of boundaries between the Christian home and modern society the case studies included in this volume call for a more nuanced understanding of nineteenth and twentieth century Christian ideas on family religion and the home
