Christian Community in History Roger Haight, 2004 God's Mission and Postmodern Culture John C. Sivalon, 2012

Drawing on his own mission training and experience John Sivalon believes the gospel can and must be inculturated in any culture and he believes that postmodernism rather than rendering Christian mission meaningless breathes fresh insight vision and life into Vatican II's notion that mission is centred in the very heart of God Dialectical Encounters Wilkinson Taraneh Wilkinson, 2019-04-04 Discussions of Islam in Turkey are still heavily dominated by political considerations and the dualistic paradigms of modern v traditional secular v religious Yet there exists a body of Muslim institutions in the country Turkish theology faculties whose work overcomes ideological divisions By engaging with Turkish theology in its theological rather than political concerns this book sheds light on complex Muslim voices in the context of a largely Western and Christian modernity Featuring the work of Recep AlpyaAYA l and Azaban Ali Dzgn this innovative study provides a concise survey of Turkish Muslim positions on religious pluralism and atheism as well as detailed treatments of both critical and appreciative Turkish Muslim perspectives on Western Christianity The result is a critical reframing of the category of modernity through the responses of Turkish theologians to the Western intellectual tradition The Routledge

Elasticized Ecclesiology Ulrich Schmiedel, 2017-01-17 This study confronts the current crisis of churches In critical and creative conversation with the German theologian Ernst Troeltsch 1865 1923 Ulrich Schmiedel argues that churches need to be elasticized in order to engage the other Examining contested concepts of religiosity community and identity Schmiedel explores how the closure of church against the sociological other corresponds to the closure of church against the theological other Taking trust as a central category he advocates for a turn in the interpretation of Christianity from propositional possession to performative project so that the identity of Christianity is done rather than described Through explorations of classical and contemporary scholarship in philosophy sociology and theology Schmiedel retrieves Troeltsch's interdisciplinary thinking for use in relation to the controversies that encircle the construction of community today The study opens up innovative and instructive approaches to the investigation of the practices of Christianity past and present Eventually church emerges as a work in movement continually constituted through encounters with the sociological and the theological other
