Witches and Demons Jean La Fontaine, 2016-04-01 Devil worship black magic and witchcraft have long captivated anthropologists as well as the general public In this volume Jean La

Fontaine explores the intersection of expert and lay understandings of evil and the cultural forms that evil assumes. The chapters touch on public scares about devil worship, misconceptions about human sacrifice and the use of body parts in healing practices and mistaken accusations of children practicing witchcraft. Together these cases demonstrate that comparison is a powerful method of cultural understanding but warns of the dangers and mistaken conclusions that untrained ideas about other ways of life can lead to. Learning Morality, Inequalities, and Faith Hansjörg

Dilger, 2021-12-16 Christian and Muslim schools have become important target points in families and pupils' quests for new study opportunities and securing a good life in Tanzania. These schools combine secular education with the moral self-formation of young people, triggering new realignments of the fields of education with interreligious co-existence and class formation in the country's urban centres. Hansjörg Dilger explores the emerging entanglements of faith, morality and the educational market in Dar es Salaam, thereby shedding light on processes of religious institutionalisation and their individual and collective embodiment. By contextualising these dynamics through analysis of the politics of Christian-Muslim relations in postcolonial Tanzania, this book shows how the field of education has shaped the positions of these highly diverse religious communities in diverging ways. In doing so, Dilger suggests that students and teachers' religious experience and practice in faith-oriented schools are shaped by the search for socio-moral belonging as well as by the power relations and inequalities of an interconnected world. Young Muslims and Christians in a Secular Europe Daan Beekers, 2021-01-14 Engaging with debates about lived religion, pluralism and secularism, this book presents an ethnographic study of committed young Muslims and Christians in the predominantly secular context of the Netherlands. Daan Beekers breaks with conventional frameworks that keep these groups apart by highlighting the common ground between revivalist-minded Protestant Christians and Sunni Muslims. Based on in-depth fieldwork, Young Muslims and Christians in a Secular Europe shows that these young adults embark on reflexive projects of cultivating personal faith that are rife with struggles, setbacks and doubts. Beekers argues that this shared precarious condition of everyday religious pursuits is shaped by young believers' active participation in today's high capitalist and largely secular society, where they encounter other modes of imagining and living in the world. Yet he reveals that this close engagement with secular culture also fosters a reinvigorated religious commitment that demands constant care and nourishment. Written in a clear and accessible style, this book reaches beyond longstanding divisions in the study of religion in Europe. It both provides rich insights into everyday religious lives and disrupts persistent binary oppositions between categories such as minorities and majorities, migrants and natives, and Islam and the West. The

Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, Nene Ernest Khalema, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Africa presents a comparative analysis of sociological thinking in Africa. Focusing on examples from Africa, this diverse collection presents to a broad readership an accessible, comprehensive, up-to-date and topical analysis of sociological thinking in Africa. Sociological discourse about African societies has been challenging and difficult due to a lack of both comprehensive analyses and holistic sociological evidence that covers Africa from past to present This Handbook locates African sociological thinking in historical context and takes a critical look at its current manifestations across the continent

The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa

The Yoruba God of Drumming Amanda Villepastour, 2016-01-19 As one of the salient forces in the ritual life of those who worship the pre Christian and Muslim deities called orishas the Yoruba god of drumming known as Yn in Africa and A in Cuba is variously described as the orisha of drumming the spirit of the wood or the more obscure Yoruba praise name Asr Igi Wood That Talks With the growing global importance of orisha religion and music the consequence of this deity's power for devotees continually reveals itself in new constellations of meaning as a sacred drum of Nigeria and Cuba finds new diasporas Despite the growing volume of literature about the orishas surprisingly little has been published about the ubiquitous Yoruba music spirit Yet wherever one hears drumming for the orishas Yn or A is nearby This groundbreaking collection addresses the gap in the research with contributions from a cross section of prestigious musicians scholars and priests from Nigeria the Americas and Europe who have dedicated themselves to studying Yoruba sacred drums and the god sealed within As well as offering multidisciplinary scholarly insights from transatlantic researchers the volume includes compelling first hand accounts from drummer priests who were themselves history makers in Nigerian and Cuban diasporas in the United States Venezuela and Brazil This collaboration between diverse scholars and practitioners constitutes an innovative approach where differing registers of knowledge converge to portray the many faces and voices of a single god

Routledge Handbook of Islam in Africa Terje Østebø, 2021-12-20 Bringing together cutting edge research from a range of disciplines this handbook argues that despite often being overlooked or treated as marginal the study of Islam from an African context is integral to the broader Muslim world Challenging the portrayal of African Muslims as passive recipients of religious impetuses arriving from the outside this book shows how the continent has been a site for the development of rich Islamic scholarship and religious discourses Over the course of the book the contributors reflect on The history and infrastructure of Islam in Africa Politics and Islamic reform Gender youth and everyday life for

African Muslims New technologies media and popular culture Written by leading scholars in the field the contributions examine the connections between Islam and broader sociopolitical developments across the continent demonstrating the important role of religion in the everyday lives of Africans This book is an important and timely contribution to a subject that is often diffusely studied and will be of interest to researchers across religious studies African studies politics and sociology

Butinage Yonatan N. Gez, Yvan Droz, Jeanne Rey, Edio Soares, 2021-03-01 Based on comparative ethnographic research in four countries and three continents Butinage The Art of Religious Mobility explores the notion of religious butinage as a conceptual framework intended to shed light on the dynamics of everyday religious practice Derived from the French word butiner which refers to the foraging activity of bees and other pollinating insects this term is employed by the authors metaphorically to refer to the to-ing and fro-ing of believers between religious institutions Focused on urban predominantly Christian settings in Brazil Kenya Ghana and Switzerland Butinage examines commonalities and differences across the four case studies and identifies religious mobility as existing at the meeting points of religious institutional rules and narratives social norms and individual agency and practice Drawing on anglophone francophone and lusophone academic traditions Butinage is dedicated to a dialogue between ethnographic findings and theoretical ideas and explores how we may rethink common conceptions of religious normativity
