Confronting the Controversies Adam Hamilton, Sally Sharpe, 2001-05-01 Christians are faced every day with daunting choices between difficult alternatives What does my Christian faith have to say about the moral issues that divide our society There are plenty of people on opposite sides of the spectrum claiming to know the will of God in these matters It is nonetheless very difficult to find help in looking at both sides of these ethical questions and applying the biblical witness to arrive at an authentically Christian belief about them This is precisely what Adam Hamilton proposes to do Presented as a collection of sermons Confronting the Controversies includes euthanasia assisted suicide creationism abortion and homosexuality Scrupulously fair to both the positions of each side and their motivations for holding them Hamilton offers clear concise information on what is at stake in these explosive issues Hamilton applies a careful broad reading of Scripture to offer direct yet compassionate guidance on what a faithful Christian response will be This book is set up for group study with discussion questions at the end of each chapter

Sisk, 2007-12-17 How do clergy preach to meet the legitimate needs of their congregation and live up to standards of professionalism and personal integrity Preaching Ethically offers guidelines for preaching in light of a range of factors that might tempt a preacher to misuse the pulpit How do you preach about controversial issues What do you say from the pulpit when your marriage is in trouble What are the ethics of preaching in times of local or national crisis How do you draw from resources found on the Internet and elsewhere without plagiarizing or misleading listeners about the source of the materials How do you write a sermon when you know very little about a subject Why and how do you feed a congregation a balanced sermonic diet To be true to ourselves and our calling says Sisk we must examine how the many factors that can influence our preaching come into play the calling to preach to gospel compels us to preach in ways that keep the gospel foremost treat the congregation fairly and are true to our own convictions and our personal integrity
