Close Encounters Of The Third Grade Kind Thoughts On Teacherhood:

Close Encounters of the Third-Grade Kind Phillip Done, 2009-09-04 A twenty year veteran of the classroom elementary school teacher Phillip Done takes readers through a lively and hilarious year in the classroom Starting with the relative calm before the storm of buying school supplies and posting class lists he shares the distinct personalities of grades K 4 what he learned from two professional trick or treating 8 year old boys the art of learning cursive and letter writing how kindergartners try to trap leprechauns and what every child should experience before he or she grows up These charming sweet and funny tales of Mr Done s trials and triumphs as an award winning schoolteacher will touch readers hearts and remind them of the true joys of childhood We all have that one special favorite grade school teacher whom we fondly remember throughout our adult lives and every teacher also has students whom they will never forget This is the perfect book for teachers parents and anyone else who is looking for a lighthearted nostalgic read The Art of Teaching Children Phillip Done, 2023-07-18 An essential guide for teachers and parents that s destined to become a classic The Art of Teaching Children is one of those rare and masterful books that not only defines a craft but offers a magical reading experience After more than thirty years in the classroom award winning teacher Phillip Done decided that it was time to retire But a teacher s job is never truly finished and he set out to write the greatest lesson of his career a book for educators and parents that would pass along everything he learned about working with kids From the first day of school jitters to the last day s tears Done writes about the teacher s craft classrooms and curriculums the challenges of the profession and the reason all teachers do it the children Drawing upon decades of experience Done shares time tested tips and sage advice Real learning is messy not linear Greeting kids in the morning as they enter the classroom is an important part of the school day If a student is having trouble look at what you can do differently before pointing the finger at the child Ask yourself Would I want to be a student in my class When children watch you they are learning how to be people and one of the most important things we can do for our students is to model the kind of people we would like them to be Done tackles topics you won t find in any other teaching book including Back to School Night nerves teacher pride the Sunday Blues Pinterest envy teacher guilt and the things they never warn you about in teacher school but should like how to survive recess duty field trips and lunch supervision Done also addresses some of the most important issues schools face today bullying excessive screen time the system s obsession with testing teacher burnout and the ever increasing demands of meeting the diverse learning needs of students But The Art of Teaching Children is more than a guide to educating today s young learners These pages are alive with inspiration humor and tales of humanity Done welcomes us like visitors at Open House Night to the world of elementary school where we witness lessons that go well and others that flop periods that run smoothly and ones that go haywire when a bee flies into the room We meet master teachers and new ones librarians and lunch supervisors principals and parents some with too much time on their hands We get to know kids who want to hold a ball and those who d rather hold a marker students with difficult home lives and children with disabilities youngsters who need drawing out and those who happily announce in the middle of a math lesson that they have a loose tooth With great wit and wisdom irresistible storytelling and boundless compassion The Art of Teaching Children is the new educator's bible for teachers parents and all who work with kids and care about their learning and success The Publishers Weekly, 2009

Close Encounters of the Third-Grade Kind Phillip Done, 2009-09-04 A twenty year veteran of the classroom elementary school teacher Phillip Done takes readers through a lively and hilarious year in the classroom Starting with the relative calm before the storm of buying school supplies and posting class lists he shares the distinct personalities of grades K 4 what he learned from two professional trick or treating 8 year old boys the art of learning cursive and letter writing how kindergartners try to trap leprechauns and what every child should experience before he or she grows up These charming sweet and funny tales of Mr Done's trials and triumphs as an award winning schoolteacher will touch readers hearts and remind them of the true joys of childhood We all have that one special favorite grade school teacher whom we fondly remember throughout our adult lives and every teacher also has students whom they will never forget This is the perfect book for teachers parents and anyone else who is looking for a lighthearted nostalgic read

The Ornament Box Phillip Done, 2016-09-22 On Christmas Eve Michael reluctantly returns to his childhood home to help his mother set up the tree Normally this is something Michael's father would do but not this Christmas he's upstairs recovering from surgery Though Michael longs for a relationship with his father he and his dad are not close So much of his father's life is a mystery As Michael and his mom unwrap the ornaments author Phillip Done through his signature warmth and charm unwraps the family's relationships and struggles and Michael discovers the deep secret sorrow of the man upstairs A testament to home and hope this treasure of a story with its timeless message will touch readers hearts and endure as a reminder of the preciousness of family and the redemptive power of love

32 Third Graders and One Class Bunny Phillip Done, 2009-09 Now in paperback to tie in with the publication of Phillip Done's new hardcover Close Encounters of the Third Grade Kind from Center Street 32 Third Graders and One Class Bunny brings the joys and terrors of elementary school back to life The Washington Times Phil Done has taught elementary school for twenty years He fixes staplers that won't staple zippers that won't zip and pokes pins in the caps of glue bottles that will not pour He has sung Happy Birthday 657 times 32 Third Graders and One Class Bunny is for anyone who has ever taught children or been to third grade This collection of tightly written connected essays is an unexpected pleasure an absolute joy Tucson Citizen and a testament to the kids who uplift us and the teachers we will never forget With just the right mix of humor and wisdom Done reveals the enduring promise of elementary school as a powerful antidote to the cynicism of our times

The Charms of Miss O'Hara: Tales of Gone with the Wind & the Golden Age of Hollywood from Scarlett's Little Sister Phillip Done, 2014-04-24 In 2012 beloved screen star Ann Rutherford Scarlett's youngest sister in Gone With the Wind passed away But fortunately not her stories The year before her death Miss Rutherford invited author Phillip Done to her Beverly Hills home where she shared decades of heartening memories from her fascinating life in the Golden Age of Hollywood Like a scene out of Sunset Boulevard Done wrote it down in this masterful tribute and shrewdly crafted memoir With never before seen photographs from Miss Rutherford s private collection The Charms of Miss O Hara takes readers on a guided tour through Ann Rutherford s rich career including such roles as Polly Benedict in the Andy Hardy pictures Lydia in Pride and Prejudice and Carreen in Gone With the Wind Oft told in Miss Rutherford s sharp and engaging voice readers will discover delicious behind the scenes stories and anecdotes about Clark Gable Vivien Leigh Olivia de Havilland Lana Turner Mickey Rooney Judy Garland Ava Gardner Debbie Reynolds David Selznick Louis B Mayer and many others Much more than a celebrity memoir The Charms of Miss O Hara will delight Gone With the Wind fans and classic movie buffs with valuable life lessons from a movie star
