Russell Walker, Greg Merkley

Chipotle Tough Mudder:

Chipotle Mexican Grill Russell Walker, Greg Merkley, 2017 By any measure Chipotle Mexican Grill was a success story in the restaurant business. It grew from one location in 1993 to over 2 000 locations by 2016 and essentially created the fast casual dining category. Its stock appreciated more than 1 000% in the ten years following its 2006 IPO. However, after more than 20 years without a major reported food safety incident, Chipotle was revealed as the source of multiple outbreaks of illness from norovirus, salmonella, and E coli that sickened nearly 600 people in 13 states in 2015. The company closed stores, spent several months under investigation by the U S Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and other health organizations, and faced a criminal investigation in connection with the incidents. After a much publicized closing of all of its stores on February 8, 2016, and numerous changes to its food sourcing and preparation practices, Chipotle tried to win back customers with dramatically increased advertising and free food promotions. However, on April 26, the chain announced its first ever quarterly loss as a public company. Same store sales for the first quarter were 29.7% lower than in the previous year. Operating margins fell from 27.5% to 6.8% over the same period, and the company's share price was down 41% from its summer 2015 high.

Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc Sylvia Banda, Fable Moon, Bradley Wise, James S. O'Rourke, 2016 In late 2015, Chipotle Mexican Grill experienced a large scale food safety crisis. The company's restaurants were identified as the source of an E Coli outbreak that affected 14 states and led to more than 20 hospitalizations. Known for its Food With Integrity initiative and having experienced a decade of explosive growth, the company's livelihood was being threatened by the design of its own supply chain. Customers were scared, and the issue had attracted the attention of investors, regulators, and the national news media. Chipotle needed to respond.
