(Classic Reprint) John Humphrey Noyes,2018-03-23 Excerpt from Salvation From Sin the End of Christian Faith In denying that the Old Testament saints were born of God we must not be understood as denying that they had any religion It appears by the passage above quoted that there are two distinct stages in religious experience in the first of which men may properly be called servants of God while yet they are not sons It is important that this distinction should be clearly seen and constantly kept in view We admit and teach that the Old Testament saints were servants of God in the ages before Christ and that they became sons at his coming But what is the difference between servants and sons Did not the Old Testament saints love God Yes and so many servants love and honor their masters while yet there is no vital union no blood relationship between them So there was no vital union between God and man till Christ came in the flesh Abraham was called the friend of God and he doubtless loved God as a man loves his friend but it is not said in scripture and it is not true that Christ was in him that he dwelt in God and God in him This spiritual indwelling was hid from ages and from generations and was manifested only after the mission of Christ Col 1 26 27 It is this that brings men into blood relationship to God so that they are entitled to the name of sons of God About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at

The Faith of a Quaker (Classic Reprint) John William Graham, 2017-02-06 Excerpt from The Faith of a Quaker: There arise also the insistent questions which beset all mystics and which in Quakerism demanded a corporate instead of an individual answer. The Secret of Progress (Classic Reprint) W. Cunningham, 2016-10-16 Excerpt from The Secret of Progress: Buckle regarded it as clear that militarism and high intellectual development were not compatible till recently many people were prepared to believe that warfare was alien to the interest of civilised peoples and could only occur among half-civilised or backward races. But this war has shown that these hopes were vain and that the last result of civilisation was not to render war impossible but to give the means of carrying it out on a vastly extended scale. The increase of knowledge and of power over nature and the sense of the benefits of intercourse and intercommunication have not sufficed to give us any immunity from war.
