

The painting 'The Face of War' by Salvador Dalí is a complex surrealist work. It features a large, central face of a man with a mustache, composed of various landscape elements. The face's features are defined by different scenes: a landscape with a river and trees on the left, a landscape with a bridge and a small town on the right, and a landscape with a large, dark, circular shape at the bottom. The background is a vast, yellowish landscape with numerous small, circular, blue ponds, each containing a small, dark, castle-like structure. Two white, winged figures are flying in the sky. The overall style is characteristic of Dalí's mature work, with a focus on dreamlike imagery and symbolic elements.
