Close-Up B1 with Teachers Book Angela Healan, Katrina Gormley, 2014-06-26 The Palgrave Handbook on Critical Theories of Education Ali A. Abdi, Greg William Misiasek, 2022-09-13 This handbook brings together a range of global perspectives in the field of critical studies in education to illuminate multiple ways of knowing learning and teaching for social wellbeing justice and sustainability The handbook covers areas such as critical thought systems of education critical race and racialization theories of education critical international global citizenship education and critical studies in education and literacy studies In each section the chapter authors illuminate the current state of the field and probe more inclusive ways to achieve multicentric knowledge and learning possibilities Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1920 The Feral Classroom James Macpherson, 2024-11-01 First published in 1983 The Feral Classroom argues that the experience of schooling needs to be understood in terms of peer interaction in the classroom Students interaction mediates the significance of the curriculum and teacher and is in its own right a major agent of socialisation The study reported in the book was conducted in an Australian state high school It employs ethnographic techniques focused on students accounts of relations and activities with classmates Concepts embodied in these accounts are interpreted through models of school and peer group as agents of socialisation The volume fills several gaps It is the first book to describe at length students accounts of classroom interaction to give equal weight to boys and girls accounts and to describe dominant students determination of the use of classroom norms and of the definition of performances This book will appeal to a wide range of readers including but not limited to teachers educational administrators and sociologists Biennial Report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of Iowa Iowa. Department of Public Instruction, 1883 Report Iowa. Dept. of Public Instruction, 1883 Tangled Up in School Jan Nesor, 2013-11-26 Based on two years of ethnographic fieldwork in an urban elementary school this volume is an examination of how school division politics regional economic policies parental concerns urban development efforts popular cultures gender ideologies racial politics and university and corporate agendas come together to produce educational effects Unlike conventional school ethnographies the focus of this work is less on classrooms than on the webs of social relations that embed schools in neighborhoods cities states and regions Utilizing a variety of narratives and analytical styles this volume explores how curriculum innovations are simultaneously made possible by and undermined by school district politics neighborhood histories and the spatial and temporal organizations of teachers and parents lives situates the educational discourse of administrators and teachers in the changing economic and political climates of the city analyzes the motivations behind an effort by school and business proponents to refashion classrooms within the school into business enterprises and of children s efforts to make sense of the scheme examines the role of the school as a neighborhood institution situating it at the intersections of city planners efforts to regulate city space and children s efforts to carve out live spaces through out of school routines contemplates the meaning of school as a site for bodily experience and looks at how patterns of space and control in the school shaped children's bodies and at how they continued to use body-based languages to construct maturity, gender and race and investigates the school as a space for the deployment of symbolic resources where children learned and constructed identities through their engagements with television, comic books, movies and sports. Tangled Up In School raises questions about how we draw the boundaries of the school about how schools fit into the lives of children and cities and about what we mean when we talk about school.
