

Closing Prayer For A Prayer Service

Gracious God, we thank you for this time of worship. We have been blessed by your presence, and we are grateful for your guidance. We ask that you continue to watch over us and protect us. Help us to live our lives in a way that honors you each day.

We ask that you bring peace to those who are in conflict, and that you heal those who are sick. We pray for the needs of our community, our nation, and our world.

Guide us all safely home and may we take what you have given us here and let it be lived out in our actions and words throughout this week. In the name of Jesus I pray on behalf of all gathered here, Amen.

Gregory Van Dussen, 2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning Yet this astounding event reveals God's ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself Seasons of Hope Journal Four M.
