Clothed In My Right Mind:

Clothed and in My Right Mind Christian Simons, 2014-10-10 When I first set down to write this account of my life I had three things I wanted to share with the reader First I want to testify of the delivering power of God from madness Next my desire is to call attention to the problems that we veterans face in receiving benefits we were promised whether we were on the front line in Vietnam or stationed stateside Finally I want to be a blessing to fellow veterans by helping make them aware of the resources that we may or may not have through our government at both the local and national levels This book tells the story of an infant with engrafted madness who went on to become even more enveloped in madness as time passed and did a lot of insane things to himself and to others Because of this madness I found myself engaged in a series of very painful and uncontrollable things The only true way out of this lifestyle was by the grace of God and his deliverance God intervened by allowing his Son Jesus and the Holy Ghost to come into my life and set me free from my sins and sickness This book is just one of the many things that God eventually inspired me to do in his set time If you will carefully and prayerfully read it God can and will help those who are in need of help and want it bad enough to do what it takes to get it Help is here for whatever their need is within the scope of the material presented here May God the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit bless the readers of this book it is blessed I thank God who is the inspirational source of my life and reason for this book Amen At

Susan J. Dunlap, 2021-08-10 Susan J Dunlap offers the theological fruits of time spent working as a chaplain with people without homes After depicting the local history of her small southern city she describes the prayer service she co leads in a homeless shelter Clients offer words of faith and encouragement that take the form of prayer sayings testimony song and short sermons Dunlap describes both these forms of expression and their theological content She asserts that these forms and beliefs are a means of survival and resistance in a hostile world The ways they serve these purposes are further demonstrated in life stories told as testimonies incorporating scripture sayings oral tradition and popular culture Dunlap concludes that white supremacy and neoliberalism have produced the problem of homelessness in America and are forms of idolatry The faith and practices shared at the shelter are spiritual and theological resources for people in the grip of and seeking freedom from this idolatry Claiming that only God can free us from bondage to idolatry and that to draw close to the poor is to draw close to God Dunlap calls for proximity to people living without homes who are practicing their faith amid poverty
