

Cichlids

A large, dark-colored cichlid fish, possibly a Tanganyikan cichlid, is the central focus of the cover. It has a prominent, large eye with a reddish-brown iris and a dark pupil. The fish's body is dark grey or black with lighter, yellowish-brown patches. A row of prominent, dark spines runs along its back. The fish is swimming in a greenish, slightly murky water. To the left of the fish are several bright yellow, feathery artificial plants. The overall scene is set within an aquarium.
