In the Breath of God Russell B. Connors, 2001 In the Breath of God Russell B. Connors, Jr., Tom Walters, 2004-01-01 The Origins of Christian Morality Wayne A. Meeks, 1993-01-01 By the time Christianity became a political and cultural force in the Roman Empire it had come to embody a new moral vision This wise and eloquent book describes the formative years from the crucifixion of Jesus to the end of the second century of the common era when Christian beliefs and practices shaped their unique moral order Wayne A Meeks examines the surviving documents from Christianity s beginnings some of which became the New Testament and shows that they are largely concerned with the way converts to the movement should behave Meeks finds that for these Christians the formation of morals means the formation of community the documents are addressed not to individuals but to groups and they have among their primary aims the maintenance and growth of these groups Meeks paints a picture of the process of socialization that produced the early forms of Christian morality discussing many factors that made the Christians feel that they were a single and chosen people He describes for example the impact of conversion the rapid spread of Christian household cult associations in the cities of the Roman Empire the language of Christian moral discourse as revealed in letters testaments and moral stories the rituals meetings and institutionalization of charity the Christians feelings about celibacy sex and gender roles and their sense of the end time and final judgment In each of these areas Meeks seeks to determine what is distinctive about the Christian viewpoint and what is similar to the moral components of Greco Roman or Jewish thought

Latin America primarily in Pentecostal evangelical and independent churches These dramatically changed planetary and ecclesial landscapes have led many to conclude that we need a new way of thinking about our collective existence who are we and what is the nature of our responsibility in this deeply altered world To address that question biblical scholars Bruce C Birch and Jacqueline E Lapsley and Christian ethicists Larry L Rasmussen and Cynthia Moe Lobeda carry on a new conversation that engages how Christians are to understand the authority and use of Scripture the basic elements of any full bodied Christian ethic attuned to our circumstances and the nature of our responsibility to our planetary neighbors and creation itself

Christian Ethics Introduced Hans O. Tiefel, 2024-03-11 Christian Ethics Introduced asks why humans count as ends in themselves The biblical answer was is that humans have standing inherent worth as creatures in the image of God This traditional answer yielded to seventeenth and eighteenth century enlightenment secularism To these secularists human reason promised to be a surer and more peaceable foundation for a just culture than religion Human rationality the light of human reason would enlighten and improve the human condition Two world wars and more realistic trends in new social sciences created not just awareness of human irrationality but fostered skepticism of sound foundations for morality and justice It seemed that both traditional religion and enlightened reason fell short of what had been hoped And the cause of failure may not lie in traditional religion or in human irrationality Rather the problem might lie in human conduct Specifically it may lie in the human inclination to favor self over others of the me outranking the we Christian responses to the human failure to live a moral and just life recognize the persistence of immoral conduct acknowledge it in regard to oneself ask for forgiveness and make amends and peace with God and with those wronged
