Colonial Botany Science Commerce And Politics In The Early Modern World:

Colonial Botany Londa Schiebinger, Claudia Swan, 2007-07-13 A wide ranging collection of essays on plants as market forces

Science in the Age of Baroque Ofer Gal, Raz Chen-Morris, 2012-11-28 This volume examines the New Science of the 17th century in the context of Baroque culture analysing its emergence as an integral part of the high culture of the period The collected essays explore themes common to the new practices of knowledge production and the rapidly changing culture surrounding them as well as the obsessions anxieties and aspirations they share such as the foundations of order the power and peril of mediation and the conflation of the natural and the artificial The essays also take on the historiographical issues involved the characterization of culture in general and culture of knowledge in particular the use of generalizations like Baroque and the status of such categories and the role of these in untangling the historical complexities of the tumultuous 17th century The canonical protagonists of the Scientific Revolution are considered and so are some obscure and suppressed figures Galileo side by side with Scheiner Torricelli together with Kircher Newton as well as Scilla The coupling of Baroque and Science defies both the still triumphalist historiographies of the Scientific Revolution and the slight embarrassment that the Baroque represents for most cultural national histories of Western Europe It signals a methodological interest in tensions and dilemmas rather than self affirming narratives of success and failure and provides an opportunity for reflective critique of our historical categories which is valuable in its own right

Literature and the Renaissance Garden from Elizabeth I to Charles II Amy L. Tigner, 2016-05-13 Spanning the period from Elizabeth I's reign to Charles II's restoration this study argues the garden is a primary site evincing a progressive narrative of change a narrative that looks to the Edenic as obtainable ideal in court politics economic prosperity and national identity in early modern England In the first part of the study Amy L Tigner traces the conceptual forms that the paradise imaginary takes in works by Gascoigne Spenser and Shakespeare all of whom depict the garden as a space in which to imagine the national body of England and the gendered body of the monarch In the concluding chapters she discusses the function of gardens in the literary works by Jonson an anonymous masque playwright and Milton the herbals of John Gerard and John Parkinson and the tract writing of Ralph Austen Lawrence Beal and Walter Blithe In these texts the paradise imaginary is less about the body politic of the monarch and more about colonial pursuits and pressing environmental issues As Tigner identifies during this period literary representations of gardens become potent discursive models that both inspire constructions of their aesthetic principles and reflect innovations in horticulture and garden technology Further the development of the botanical garden ushers in a new world of science and exploration With the importation of a new world of plants the garden emerges as a locus of scientific study hybridization medical investigation and the proliferation of new ornamentals and aliments In this way the garden functions as a means to understand and possess the rapidly expanding globe

The British Atlantic World, 1500-1800 David Armitage, Michael J. Braddick, 2009-01-15 This core textbook gathers an international team of historians to present a comprehensive account of the central themes in the histories of Britain British America and the British Caribbean seen in Atlantic perspective This collection of individual essays provides an accessible overview of essential themes such as the state empire migration the economy religion race class gender politics and slavery This new and revised edition brings this text up to date with recent work in the field of Atlantic history and extends its scope to cover themes not treated in the first edition notably the history of science and global history Placing the British Atlantic world in imperial and global contexts this book offers an indispensable survey of one of the liveliest fields of current historical enquiry This text is a primary resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of History particularly those taking modules on Early Modern British History Colonial American History Early American History Caribbean History Atlantic History and World History Together the essays also provide a useful starting point for researchers in British American imperial and Atlantic history New to this Edition Updated and expanded to take account of new research Two new essays treating Science and The British Atlantic World in Global Perspective Timeline of British Atlantic history A revised Introduction and updated guides to further reading

Animal Trade Histories in the Indian Ocean World Martha Chaiklin, Philip Gooding, Gwyn Campbell, 2020-07-21 This book examines trades in animals and animal products in the history of the Indian Ocean World IOW An international array of established and emerging scholars investigate how the roles of equines ungulates sub ungulates mollusks and avians expand our understandings of commerce human societies and world systems Focusing primarily on the period 1500 1900 they explore how animals and their products shaped the relationships between populations in the IOW and Europeans arriving by maritime routes By elucidating this fundamental yet under explored aspect of encounters and exchanges in the IOW these interdisciplinary essays further our understanding of the region the environment and the material political and economic history of the world

The East India Company and the Natural World V. Damodaran, A. Winterbottom, A. Lester, 2014-12-01 This book is the first to explore the deep and lasting impacts of the largest colonial trading company the British East India Company on the natural environment The contributors drawn from a wide range of academic disciplines illuminate the relationship between colonial capital and the changing environment between 1600 and 1857

Everlasting Flowers between the Pages Jessie Wei-Hsuan Chen, 2025-09-25 In seventeenth century Europe florilegia were lavishly produced picture books that featured hand drawn or printed illustrations of a wide variety of flowers Many of the plants depicted in florilegia stemmed from the Americas and Asia and were much desired for cultivation and study in European gardens By approaching florilegia as material objects this colourfully illustrated volume offers new insights into how florilegia mirrored different forms of plant knowledge The volume reconstructs the expertise which gardeners compilers of florilegia and image makers must have possessed in order to cultivate the once living specimens and immortalise the flowers on paper and parchment

Art, commerce and colonialism 1600-1800 Emma Barker, 2018-07-01 The book re examines the field of Renaissance art history by exploring the art of this era in the light of global connections It considers the movement of objects ideas and technologies and its significance for European art and material culture analysing images through the lens of cultural encounter and conflict

The Reinvention of Atlantic Slavery Daniel B. Rood, 2017-04-14 The period of the second slavery was marked by geographic expansion of zones of slavery into the Upper US South Cuba and Brazil and chronological expansion into the industrial age As The Reinvention of Atlantic Slavery shows ambitious planters throughout the Greater Caribbean hired a transnational group of chemists engineers and other plantation experts to assist them in adapting industrial technologies to suit their tropical needs and increase profitability Not only were technologies reinvented so as to keep manufacturing processes local but slaveholders adaptation of new racial ideologies also shaped their particular usage of new machines Finally these businessmen forged a new set of relationships with one another in order to sidestep the financial dominance of Great Britain and the northeastern United States In addition to promoting new forms of mechanization the technical experts depended on the know how of slaves alongside whom they worked Bondspeople with industrial craft skills played key roles in the development of new production processes and technologies like sugar mills While the very existence of such skilled slaves contradicted prevailing racial ideologies and allowed black people to wield power in their own interest their contributions grew the slave economies of Cuba Brazil and the Upper South Together reform minded planters technical experts and enslaved people modernized sugar plantations in Louisiana and Cuba brought together rural Virginia wheat planters and industrial flour millers in Richmond with the coffee planting system of southeastern Brazil and enabled engineers and iron makers in Virginia to collaborate with railroad and sugar entrepreneurs in Cuba Through his examination of the creation of these industrial bodies of knowledge Daniel B Rood demonstrates the deepening dependence of the Atlantic economy on forced labor after a few revolutionary decades in which it seemed the institution of slavery might be destroyed The reinvention of this plantation world in the 1840s and 1850s brought a renewed movement in the 1860s especially from enslaved people themselves in the United States and Cuba to end chattel slavery This account of capitalism technology and slavery offers new perspectives on the nineteenth century Americas

Enchanted Creatures Natalie Lawrence, 2025-04-01 A fascinating journey through 15 000 years of history exploring the incredible variety of monstrous creatures we have created and what they can tell us about ourselves The hydra rears its many heads in a flurry of teeth and poisonous fumes The cyborg lays waste to humanity with a ruthless expressionless stare From ancient mythology to modern science fiction we have had to confront the monsters that lurk in the depths of our collective imagination They embody our anxieties and our irrational terrors giving form to what we don't wish to know or understand For millennia monsters have helped us to manage the extraordinary complexity of our minds and to deal with the challenges of being human In Enchanted Creatures Natalie Lawrence delves into 15 000 years of imaginary beasts and uncovers the otherworldly natural history that has evolved with our deepest fears and fascinations Join Lawrence on a tour of prehistoric cave monsters serpentine hybrids deep sea leviathans and fire breathing Kaiju Discover how this monstrous menagerie has shaped our minds our societies and how we see our place in nature
