Collaborative Resilience Moving Through Crisis To Opportunity:

Collaborative Resilience Bruce Evan Goldstein, 2012 Case studies and analyses investigate how collaborative response to crisis can enhance social ecological resilience and promote community reinvention

Urban Regions Now & Tomorrow Sonja Deppisch, 2017-04-19 This book points to three dominant concepts of how to deal with long term or surprising and also sudden catastrophic changes with a main focus on resilience It is dealing with past current and future change processes in European Northern American as well as Australian cities and urban regions and with the challenges they pose to a resilient urban development Additionally contributions deal with potential transformations of urban and regional development and related planning and governance approaches

Review of the state of the world fishery resources Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Arthur, R., 2024-09-18 The FAO Fishery and Aquaculture Circular C942 Revision 4 C942 Rev 4 provides a comprehensive overview of the global status of inland capture fisheries This review analyzes trends of inland capture fisheries at global continental and subcontinental levels highlighting the crucial role these fisheries play in food security nutrition employment and local economies By placing inland capture fisheries in the context of global fish production this study also illustrates of their adaptive nature their enduring relevance and potential to contribute to global development goals Additionally the publication addresses four key thematic areas crucial for the future of inland fisheries data quality their contribution to food systems integration with basin management and the enhancement of fisheries management practices

Cultivating Peace Marty Branagan, Bert Jenkins, Helen Ware, 2014-04-11 Cultivating Peace Contexts Practices and Multidimensional Models moves away from negative connotations associated with the concept of post conflict peacebuilding It embraces a multiplicity of trans disciplinary approaches to peacebuilding mostly coinciding with the eco horticultural metaphor of peace cultivation Ultimately the idea of cultivating peace embodies love and compassion while utilising local knowledge expertise and wisdom to do no harm Using various case studies from across the world the narratives and insights in this book present diverse facets of peacebuilding yet all contribute constructive lessons The chapters cover three general themes Some examine the structural and discursive causes of violence and how to improve situations where violence is evident or to prevent it from breaking out Others deal with the aftermath of violence and how to reconcile and restore shattered lives and societies The third group deals with positive social change by nonviolent means which is much more constructive than the negative peace of ceasefires and peace enforcement used to manage direct violence Promoting the ideal of peace cultivation this volume emphasises ways to improve things to suggest alternatives and to employ initiatives to plant and grow positive changes both during the fighting and in the aftermath of violent conflicts

Governing the Coastal Commons Derek Armitage, Anthony Charles, Fikret Berkes, 2017-04-28 Coastal communities depend on the marine environment for their livelihoods but the common property nature of marine resources poses major challenges for the governance of such resources Through detailed cases and consideration of broader global trends this volume examines how coastal communities are adapting to environmental change and the attributes of governance that foster deliberate transformations and help to build resilience of social and ecological systems Governance here reflects how communities societies and organisations e g fisher cooperatives government agencies choose to organise themselves to make decisions about important issues such as the use and protection of coastal commons e g fishery resources The book shows how a governance approach generates insights into the specific forms and arrangements that enable coastal communities to steer away from unsustainable pathways It also provides an analytical lens to consider important questions of power knowledge and legitimacy in linked social ecological systems Chapters highlight examples in which communities are engaging in deliberative transformations to build resilience and enhance their well being These transformations and efforts to build resilience are emerging through multi level collaboration shared learning innovative policies and institutional arrangements such as new property rights regimes and co management methodologies that engage with indigenous cultural practices and entrepreneurial activities including income and livelihood diversification Case studies are included from a range of countries including Canada Japan Brazil Indonesia Mexico South Africa Thailand the South Pacific and Europe The authors integrate theory with practical examples to improve coastal marine policy and governance and draw upon emerging concepts from social ecological resilience and transformations adaptive governance and the scholarship on the commons

Emergent Collaboration Infrastructures Christian Reuter, 2015-01-13 Using the domain of crisis management Christian Reuter explores challenges and opportunities for technology design in emergent environments He therefore empirically analyzes collaborative work in inter organizational crisis such as the police fire departments energy network operators and citizens in order to identify collaboration practices that reveal work infrastructure limitations He also designs implements and evaluates novel concepts and ICT artifacts towards the support of emergent collaboration Besides the discovery of potential organizational effects on the ability to deal with emergence he presents methodological implications for technology design

Introducing Human Geographies Kelly Dombroski, Mark Goodwin, Junxi Qian, Andrew Williams, Paul Cloke, 2024-07-09 Introducing Human Geographies is a travel guide into the academic subject of human geography and the things that it studies The coverage of the new edition has been thoroughly refreshed to reflect and engage with the contemporary nature and direction of human geography This updated and much extended fourth edition includes a diverse range of authors and topics from across the globe with a completely revised set of contributions reflecting contemporary concerns in human geography Presented in four parts with a streamlined structure it includes over 70 contributions written by expert international researchers addressing the central ideas through which human geographers understand and shape their subject It maps out the big foundational ideas that have shaped the discipline past and present explores key research themes being pursued in human geography's various sub disciplines and identifies emerging collaborations between human geography and other disciplines in the areas of technology justice and environment This comprehensive stimulating and cutting edge introduction to the field is richly illustrated throughout with full colour figures maps and photos The book is designed especially for students new to university degree courses in human geography across the world and is an essential reference for undergraduate students on courses related to society place culture and space

Securing sustainable small-scale fisheries: sharing good practices from around the world Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2019-02-26 This document includes eight studies showcasing good practices in support of sustainable small scale fisheries FAO commissioned these studies aiming to share experiences and promote the implementation of the Voluntary Guidelines for Securing Sustainable Small Scale Fisheries in the Context of Food Security and Poverty Eradication SSF Guidelines The case studies were also intended to promote participatory approaches in line with the SSF Guidelines principles and to promote increased interaction between research and fishing communities including the use of traditional knowledge and participatory research It is hoped that the case studies will inform policy and policy processes and in this way promote sustainable small scale fisheries according to the SSF Guidelines and the human rights based approach to development HRBA The case studies constitute a rich selection of experiences and are diverse not only with regard to their geographical setting but also in scope and approach They span from looking at one specific tool for sharing experiences the fisheries learning exchanges methodology in Madagascar and Mozambique or examining the enabling environment in a specific thematic area disaster risks in Bangladesh to regional policy formulation on small scale fisheries the SSF Guidelines protocol for Caribbean policies and reflection on how to use the SSF Guidelines in participatory processes the Myanmar step by step approach to discussions with small scale fisheries communities A few of the papers look at co management in some cases combining fisheries management and social development Senegal Uruguay and Nepal with one focusing on the role of small scale fisheries and community organizations India Generally the case studies refer to HRBA but perhaps because many of the activities have taken place in the past it seems that HRBA has rarely been consciously and explicitly implemented Still the case studies bear witness to a number of experiences and practices that are clearly steps in the right direction Key good practices emerging from the studies refer to among other things holistic approaches to co management and social responsibility broad engagement inclusiveness and partnerships the power of communication and gender equality and the role of women As more experience is gained our knowledge of how to go about implementing the SSF Guidelines will improve and nurture new and continued initiatives For the present and the future efforts should be made to apply HRBA while continuing to share experiences and good practices showing how to do so when implementing the SSF Guidelines

Environmental Conflict Management Tracylee Clarke, Tarla Rai Peterson, 2015-03-04 A step by step guide connecting theory to practice Environmental Conflict Management introduces students to the research and practice of environmental conflict and provides a step by step process for engaging stakeholders and other interested parties in the management of environmental disputes In each chapter authors Dr Tracylee Clarke and Dr Tarla Rai Peterson first introduce a specific concept or process step and then provide exercises worksheets role plays and brief case studies so students can directly apply what they are learning The appendix includes six additional extended case studies for further analysis In addition to providing practical steps for understanding and managing conflict the text identifies the most relevant laws and policies to help students make more informed decisions Students will develop techniques for public involvement and community outreach strategies for effective meeting management approaches to negotiating options and methodologies for communicating concerns and working through differences and outlines for implementing and evaluating strategies for sustaining positive community relations

Climate Adaptation Governance in Cities and Regions Jörg Knieling, 2016-08-01

Global climate change creates new challenges in particular for cities and regions As centres of human activity they are especially vulnerable to climate change impacts Adapting to a changing climate requires dealing with multiple uncertainties and complexity in order to allow proactive action Therefore cities and regions around the globe face the challenge of exploring flexible and innovative forms of governance which have to address specific local or regional vulnerabilities and build capacity to accommodate future change This raises questions about the roles of stakeholders the involvement of citizens the composition and use of formal and informal instruments as well as the implementation of different forms of organization and regulation at the local and regional level This book provides case studies from cities and regions all around the world It analyses climate change adaptation from a perspective of organizing administering and implementing local and regional adaptation strategies and measures It looks into actors actor constellations institutions and networks of climate adaptation And it provides the reader with knowledge about good practices and experiences to be transferred for solving adaptation challenges in cities and regions around the globe
