

MANLY PALMER HALL, is President of The Philosophical Research Society, Inc., a non-profit organization chartered under the educational code of the State of California, dedicated to the dissemination of useful knowledge relating to philosophy, comparative religion, and psychology. Mr. Hall has had a long and impressive career of lecturing and writing in the fields of comparative religion and idealistic philosophy. He has always emphasized the practical aspects of these subjects as they apply to the life of the individual. In his work, he restates for modern man those spiritual and ethical doctrines which have given to humanity its noblest ideals and most adequate codes of conduct. Many of Mr. Hall's writings are now unavailable, and in recent years there has been increasing demand for these publications. The present book is the second volume in an extended project of gathering material not currently in print into a series of volumes under the title Collected Writings.

COLLECTED WRITINGS—VOLUME 1 contains five selected early works of Manly P. Hall, which set forth many of the basic ideas upon which his philosophy has been built: The Initiates of the Flame is an inspired tribute to the ancient wisdom teachings and explains many keys to esoteric philosophy. In Thirty-Eight Thousand Miles of Impressions, Mr. Hall describes his travels in various parts of Asia, Egypt, and the Holy Land, and expresses his views on essential problems of human relationships. The Mysteries of Asia presents Mr. Hall's observations of strange beliefs, unusual places, and weird happenings in Eastern lands. The Hermetic Marriage explains certain alchemical symbols in the nature of all things. The Mystery of Fire sets forth the relationship of the fire symbols to the life forces in the human body. There are many interesting illustrations. 332 pages, cloth bound, $4.50 (fabricoid, $5.00) plus sales tax in California.
