- In her novel The Crow Eaters, Bapsi Sidhwa attempts an answer to some queries, by recreating a fictional yet typical story of a Parsi family and the corresponding social milieu. It is the only novel of its kind, as it is the first account of the workings of the Parsi mind, social behavior, value systems and customs. The satirical fiction, mock-epic tone and the make fun of major characters like the successful businessman Faredoon Junglewalla, his equally successful son Billy and mother-in-law Jerbanoo, make the novel an entertaining piece of literature.
- It also traces the attempts of Parsis, migrating from the west coast and settling in the more respectable climate of North Indian cities, in the late nineteenth and the turn of this century.
