Cross Back Immigrants Journey Reason:

The Rise and Fall of Faith Drew Bekius, 2017-07-01 The story of religion in the twenty first century West has been defined in part by the stories of once zealous pastors moving beyond their faith to embrace a life of reason But too often and too quickly ardent believers dismiss such accounts as aberrations and fail to consider the real life implications for those who make this transition Atheists and other skeptics meanwhile struggle to understand what took these individuals so long to make such a journey and why others aren't lining up more quickly to do the same As a result the questions posed by one side inevitably mirror those asked by the other Why do believers trust in God the way they do But what factors lead atheists to dismiss religious beliefs so easily How can believers have faith in the face of known science and history But what allows anyone to be so sure their beliefs are based in reality What would it take for believers to stop believing in God But what would it take for nonbelievers to start to believe Drawing on the author's own story as a former evangelical pastor powerless to stop his turn to atheism The Rise and Fall of Faith touches on these and other questions inviting readers into a long overdue conversation between Christians and atheists While the aim of the book is to initiate this much needed discussion the author encourages all who care about the future of humanity to carry the dialogue forward whether in the evaluation of our own inner thoughts in the assumptions we make about the other side or in how we work together in the pursuit of understanding and common ground as we navigate the world's ever changing and increasingly challenging religious and cultural landscape

Unschooling Racism Pierre W. Orelus, 2020-11-06 This book draws on critical race theories and teachers testimonials grounded in 20 years of teaching experiences to reveal the ways in which racial and cultural biases are embedded in school curricula and both their intended and unintended consequences on the learning and well being of students of color More specifically this book examines how these biases have played a significant role in the mis education misrepresentation and marginalization of African American Native American Latino and Asian students But the analysis doesn't stop there The author goes beyond the school walls to underscore how systemic racism paired with colonialism has impacted the lives of racially marginalized groups in both the United States and developing countries This book uncovers these injustices and proposes alternative ways in which racism can be unschooled

The Rhetorics of US Immigration E. Johanna Hartelius, 2015-11-10 In the current geopolitical climate in which unaccompanied children cross the border in record numbers and debates on the topic swing violently from pole to pole the subject of immigration demands innovative inquiry In The Rhetorics of US Immigration some of the most prominent and prolific scholars in immigration studies come together to discuss the many facets of immigration rhetoric in the United States The Rhetorics of US Immigration provides readers with an integrated sense of the rhetorical multiplicity circulating among and about immigrants Whereas extant literature on immigration rhetoric tends to focus on the media this work extends the conversation to the immigrants themselves among others A collection whose own eclecticism highlights the complexity of the issue The Rhetorics of US Immigration is not only a study in the language of immigration but also a frank discussion of who is doing the talking and what it means for the future From questions of activism authority and citizenship to the influence of Hollywood the LGBTQ community and the church The Rhetorics of US Immigration considers the myriad venues in which the American immigration question emerges and the interpretive framework suited to account for it Along with the editor the contributors are Claudia Anguiano Karma R Ch vez Terence Check Jay P Childers J David Cisneros Lisa M Corrigan D Robert DeChaine Anne Teresa Demo Dina Gavrilos Emily Ironside Christine Jasken Yazmin Lazcano Pry Michael Lechuga and Alessandra B Von Burg

Experiencing Ruptures in Migration - The Ordinary and Unexpected Journeys of Global Migrants Delphine Mercier, Víctor Zúñiga, Kamel Doraï, Mustapha El Miri, Michel Peraldi, 2021-12-16 This book aims to portray migratory experiences documented in the form of biographical narratives We are interested in the dynamic aspect of migration which effectively becomes a complex trajectory made up of stages returns and circulations and no longer simply as in the industrial era a bipolar exile there and here In these complex and dynamic movements many trajectories become bifurcations by which we mean shifting fates In these stories we found paths events and bifurcations all combined together in terms of biographical construction based on accumulated experiences These narratives are both very banal and very unusual journeys portraying a new international human globalization They are simultaneously stories of barriers to be crossed in chaotic situations interspersed with peaceful events in quiet contexts These journeys reveal not only the weight of migration policies but also the certification policies implemented and developed by various countries This book presents itineraries social logics of mobility the routes become the analysts If statistics record regularities the personal approach captures specificities that produce meaning and contribute to a reinterpretation of current forms of mobility The superb collection of ethnographies that the reader will find in the pages to follow provide yet further insight into the ways in which movement across state borders represents a creative accomplishment With cases selected from around the world the Middle East North Africa Latin America North America and Europe the chapter in this book demonstrate that migration is undertaken not only against states and their bureaucracies but in tension with and possibly in opposition to migrants closest associates precisely the people whom social capital theory paints as the font of the resources that make migration possible Roger Waldinger University of California Los Angeles USA Contents Foreword Roger Waldinger Introduction Víctor Zúñiga Kamel Dora Delphine Mercier and Michel Peraldi Part One Migrant Families and Their Re configuration Chinese Migrant Women Creating Meaningful Lives Despite Vulnerable Statuses Hélène Le Bail Conflict and Migration from Iraq Building a Life in Exile Amid the Twists and Turns of a Dramatic History Cyril Roussel From Family Dispersion to Asylum Seeking Palestinian Refugees in Lebanon and Syria Kamel Dora Part Two Children's Movements Across Borders A left behind child from El Alto Protection Strategies and Redefinition of Kinship Ties for the Children of Migrant Women in Bolivia Robin Cavagnoud Journey to the Ordinary Integration of an Undocumented Moroccan Migrant in France Mustapha El Miri Children Circulating Between the United States and Mexico Victor Ziga and Betsab Román González Part Three From Adventure to Waiting Emancipation of Restricted Trajectories Life While Waiting Experiencing the Asylum Application in France Carolina Kobelinsky A Family Resemblance Migration Work and Loyalty Frédéric Dcosse Suzana's choices Working in the maquiladoras migrating to survive and living transnationally Delphine Mercier Part Four From Expatriate to Migrant From Expats to migrants Mano's worlds in Marrakesh Michel Peraldi The Aeronautical Engineer in Flight Turbulence and the Capacity for Agency Across Borders Alfredo Hualde Being a Doctor Over Here or Over There Collective action the foundation of the capacity for agency in the migratory process Ariel Mendez Conclusion Uncertainty Anticipated Deborah A Boehm Migrant Frontiers Anna Tybinko, Lamonte Aidoo, Daniel F. Silva, 2023-11-16 This book examines today's massive migrations between Global South and Global North in light of Spain and Portugal's complicated colonial legacies It offers unique material on Spanish speaking and Lusophone Africa in conjunction to transatlantic and transpacific perspectives encompassing the Americas Asia and the Caribbean For the first time these are brought together to explore how movement within and beyond these former metropolises came to define the Iberian Peninsula The collection is composed of papers that study human mobility in Spanish speaking or Lusophone contexts from a myriad of approaches The project thus sheds critical light on migratory movement within the Luso Hispanic world and also beyond its traditional geo linguistic parameters through an eclectic and interdisciplinary collection of essays traversing anthropology literary studies theater and popular culture Beyond focusing solely on the geo political limits of Peninsular space several essays interrogate the legacies of Iberian colonial projects in a global perspective and how the discursive underpinnings of these impact the politics of migration in the broader Luso Hispanic world Why Travel? Beuret, Kris, Niblett, Matthew, 2021-07 This book brings together leading experts to show how our travel choices are shaped by a wide range of social physical psychological and cultural factors which have profound implications for the design of future transport policies Long Journeys. African Migrants on the Road, 2013-06-15 Trapped inside lorries or huddled aboard unseaworthy boats irregular African migrants make for troubling headlines in western media fueling fever pitch fears of an impending African exodus to Europe Despite the increasing albeit sensational attention irregular migration attracts on both sides of the Mediterranean little is known about what shapes and influences the lives of these Africans before during and after their migratory projects By privileging migrants narratives and drawing on evidence based field research from different disciplinary backgrounds the volume demystifies and dislodges many common assumptions about the human ecology of irregular African migration to Europe arguably one of the most widely debated yet least understood phenomenon of our time Immigration and the Law Sofia Espinoza Álvarez, Martin Guevara Urbina, 2018-04-10 A critical look at the mechanisms beliefs and ideologies that govern U S immigration laws and the social impacts of their enforcement Provided by publisher Understanding Migrant Decisions Belachew Gebrewold, Tendayi Bloom, 2016-06-10 Examining how changing conditions in the Mediterranean Region have affected the decisions of those considering migrating from Sub Saharan Africa to or through the Region this book represents an important and overdue contribution to international policy making and academic discourse In current discussions relating to this migration phenomenon the complexity of individual decision making is often left unacknowledged so that subsequent policy responses draw upon simplified models In this volume individual decision making takes central stage by bringing together chapters that demonstrate very different types of decision making frameworks In this project it is highlighted that people move for a variety of reasons such as being affected by conflict and insecurity by economic pressures and by desire for other forms of enrichment Throughout the book s contributors find that events in the Mediterranean cannot be considered alone in understanding migration decision making from Sub Saharan Africa but as part of an increasingly complicated global system not encompassed by one simplified theory or by looking at one regional context in isolation Knowing why individual people are moving and how they decide upon which routes to take can help to ensure policy that promotes safer travel options or makes genuine alternatives to migration available

Deadly Voyages Steven W. Bender, Veronica Fynn Bruey, 2019-12-16

Deadly Voyages Migrant Journeys across the Globe explores the burdens and impact of perilous migration while considering which laws policies practices and venues might establish empathy and protection for migrants This interdisciplinary volume envisions and calls for a transformation in migration policy motivated by the common goal of drastically reducing the peril migrants face when compelled to make their treacherous journeys All contributors to this volume agree on the inadequacy of current approaches and the dire need for change in global migration law and policy Therefore the book seeks to inform educate persuade and facilitate newer or less heard perspectives toward wider participation and influence within the forced migration policy debate Guided by the famous advice of Karl Marx that the point should be changing the world rather than merely analyzing or interpreting it the contributors suggest practical measures to fix the current gap in responses to migrant peril along with strategies for diagnosing countering and promoting human dignity and social justice with the aim of preventing future deaths and injuries in migrant journeys across the globe
