Denken Met De Handen:

Het gulden Vrouwenboek Anna Fischer-Dückelmann, 2024-03-25 Martin Heidegger Stephen Mulhall, 2017-05-15

Although Heidegger's writings are not extensively concerned with the analysis of political concepts or with advocating particular arrangements of political institutions his basic way of understanding the human relation to the world accords a constitutive significance to its social cultural and historical dimensions There is thus a political aspect to his thinking about every philosophical matter to which he turns his attention This collection of essays is designed to identify contextualize and critically evaluate the main phases of his intellectual development from that perspective Denken met de handen Denis de Rougemont, 1948 , Denken met je handen A. Geerts, 2009 The Ends of Rhetoric John B. Bender, David E. Wellbery, 1990 The discipline of rhetoric adapted through a wide range of reformulations to the specific requirements of Greek Roman Medieval and Renaissance societies dominated European education and discourse whether public or private for more than two thousand years The end of classical rhetoric's domination was brought about by a combination of social and cultural transformations that occurred between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries Concurrent with the theory boom of recent decades rhetoric has appeared as a center of discussion in the humanities and social sciences Rhetorical inquiry as it is thought and practiced today occurs in an interdisciplinary matrix that touches on philosophy linguistics communication studies psychoanalysis cognitive science sociology anthropology and political theory Rhetoric is now an area of study without accepted certainties a territory not yet parceled into topical subdivisions a mode of discourse that adheres to no fixed protocols It is a noisy field in the cybernetic sense of the term a fertile ground for creative innovation This volume embodies the interdisciplinary character of rhetoric The essays draw on wide ranging conceptual resources and combine historical theoretical and practical points of view The contributors develop a variety of perspectives on the central concepts of rhetorical theory on the work of some of its major proponents and on the breaks and continuities of its history The spectrum of thematic concern is broad extending from the Greek polis to the multi ethnic city of modern America from Aristotle to poststructuralism from questions of figural language to problems of persuasion and interaction But a common interdisciplinary interest runs through all the essays the effort to rethink rhetoric within the contemporary epistemological situation In this sense the book opens new possibilities for research within the human sciences Deconstruction and Philosophy John Sallis, 1987 Acknowledgments Note on Translations Introduction Deconstruction and the Inscription of Philosophy Infrastructures and Systematicity Rodolphe Gasché Philosophy Has Its Reasons Hugh J Silverman Desterrance The Apotropaics of Translation John P Leavey Jr Deconstruction and the History of Metaphysics In Stalling Metaphysics At the Threshold Ruben Berezdivin Doubling the Space of Existence Exemplarity in Derrida the Case of Rousseau Irene E Harvey Regulations Kant and Derrida at the End of Metaphysics Stephen Watson A Point of Almost Absolute Proximity to Hegel John Llewelyn Deconstruction and Phenomenology The Economy of Signs in Husserl and Derrida From Uselessness to
