Delta Scout Ground Coverage Operator:

The Rzhev Slaughterhouse Svetlana Gerasimova, 2013-09-19 Historians consider the Battle of Rzhev one of the bloodiest in the history of the Great Patriotic War and Zhukov's greatest defeat Veterans called this colossal battle which continued for a total of 15 months the Rzhev slaughterhouse or the Massacre while the German generals named this city the cornerstone of the Eastern Front and the gateway to Berlin By their territorial scale number of participating troops length and casualties the military operations in the area of the Rzhev Viazma salient are not only comparable to the Stalingrad battle but to a great extent surpass it The total losses of the Red Army around Rzhev amounted to 2 000 000 men the Wehrmacht's total losses are still unknown precisely to the present day Why was one of the greatest battles of the Second World War consigned to oblivion in the Soviet Union Why were the forces of the German Army Group Center in the Rzhev Viazma salient not encircled and destroyed Whose fault is it that the German forces were able to withdraw from a pocket that was never fully sealed Indeed are there justifications for blaming this lost victory on G K Zhukov In this book which has been recognized in Russia as one of the best domestic studies of the Rzhev battle answers to all these questions have been given The author Svetlana Gerasimova has lived and worked amidst the still extant signs of this colossal battle the tens of thousands of unmarked graves and the now silent bunkers and pillboxes and has dedicated herself to the study of its history Svetlana Aleksandrovna Gerasimova is a historian and museum official After graduating from Leningrad State University with a history degree she worked in the Urals as a middle school history teacher before moving to Tver where she taught a number of courses in history and local history and about museum work and leading excursions in the Tver School of Culture She earned her Ph D in history from Tver State University in 2002 For more than 20 years S A Gerasimova has been working in the Tver State Consolidated Museum and is the creator and co creator of a many displays and exhibits in the branches of the Museum and in municipal and institutional museums of the Tver Oblast Recent museum exhibits that she has created include The Battle of Rzhev 1942 1943 and The Fatal Forties Toropets District in the Years of the Great Patriotic War She has led approximately 20 historical and folklore ethnographic expeditions in the area of Tver Oblast and is the author of numerous articles in such journals as Voprosy istorii Questions of History Voenno istoricheskii arkhiv Military History Archive Voenno istoricheskii zhurnal Journal of Military History and Zhivaia starina The Living Past and of other publications In 2009 she served as a featured consultant to a Russian NTV television documentary about the Battle of Rzhev which quickly became controversial for its very frank discussion of the campaign Stuart Britton is a freelance translator and editor residing in Cedar Rapids Iowa He has been responsible for making a growing number of Russian titles available to readers of the English language consisting primarily of memoirs by Red Army veterans and recent historical research concerning the Eastern Front of the Second World War and Soviet air operations in the Korean War Notable recent titles include Valeriy Zamulin's award winning Demolishing the Myth The Tank Battle at Prokhorovka Kursk July 1943 An Operational Narrative

Helion 2011 Boris Gorbachevsky's Through the Maelstrom A Red Army Soldier's War on the Eastern Front 1942-45 University Press of Kansas 2008 and Yuri Sutiagin's and Igor Seidov's MiG Menace Over Korea The Story of Soviet Fighter Ace Nikolai Sutiagin Pen Sword Aviation 2009 Future books will include Svetlana Gerasimova's analysis of the prolonged and savage fighting against Army Group Center in 1942-43 to liberate the city of Rzhev and more of Igor Seidov's studies of the Soviet side of the air war in Korea 1951-1953 Radetzky's Marches Michael Embree, 2013-10-19 In the spring of 1848 revolution threatened to sweep away the old order throughout Europe In the Austrian occupied north of Italy newly nurtured nationalism further fueled by economic issues prompted open revolt in Lombardy and Venetia The Austrian army in Italy commanded by 82 year old Field Marshal Radetzky soon saw itself under further threat from the Kingdom of Sardinia Piedmont that of Naples and the Papal States as well as thousands of volunteers all determined to rid Italy of the occupier Seemingly under attack from all sides the Austrian Army was forced to concentrate in the famous Quadrilateral formed by the fortress cities of Peschiera Mantua Legnago and Verona losing deserters by the thousand to prepare for the war to follow a war that would continue into the following year This volume narrates the remarkable tale of how one old general quite possibly saved an empire With iron will the great personal affection of his men and some luck Radetzky maintained his army and finally defeated his opponents Such was the impact of the 1848 campaign that Johann Strauss the Elder wrote the Radetzky March in the Field Marshal's honor The comprehensive story of the revolts and the subsequent military campaigns is recounted here taken from many and varied sources including a considerable number of contemporary and first hand accounts as well official reports from all sides Radetzky's Marches is profusely illustrated and is accompanied by maps charts diagrams and extensive orders of battle Diary of a Red Devil Albert Blockwell, 2008-10-19 Many books have been written about the Second World War and the majority of them either concentrate on a particular battle campaign or unit Individual accounts are certainly in a minority and those from the lower ranks even more scarcer Helion and Co Ltd are therefore pleased to announce the publication of Diary of A Red Devil It relates the war time experiences of a young man Albert Blockwell from the northeast of England who in February 1940 was called up for service with the Army Initially conscripted into the Royal Army Ordnance Corps and trained as a vehicle mechanic he was then posted in March 1940 to a prewar Territorial unit The 7th King's Own Scottish Borderers then a home defense unit based near London His diary is a most interesting account of a young vehicle mechanic who also had to learn to be an infantry soldier Albert remained with this unit for all his wartime service later going to the Shetland Islands when the 7th KOSB were part of OSDEF Orkney and Shetlands Defence Force Then in late 1943 much to their surprise the unit was posted to Lincolnshire to become the third infantry unit in the 1st Airlanding Brigade then in the process of returning from Italy with the rest of the 1st Airborne Division Swapping their glengarries for red berets Albert and his comrades had to adapt to their new way of getting to war by glider The diary continues with a down to earth account of the highs and lows of the next few months Then in September 1944 Albert flew to Holland on Operation Market Garden and his account written in PoW camp describes the savage nine days fighting at Arnhem from the slit trench level. Taken prisoner on the last day, his account then describes the spartan life in PoW camp without pulling any punches. Sadly, Albert died in 2001, but his diary survived and his daughter Maggie Clifton, together with help from two published Arnhem authors, have edited a unique account of the fighting at Arnhem from the front-line soldier's perspective. Key sales points: Unique personal account of the formation of Britain's airborne forces and their epic actions during Operation Market Garden. The diary is supplemented by extensive annotations from acknowledged Arnhem expert Niall Cherry providing additional information relating to the units and individuals mentioned in Albert's diary. Features a large number of rare photographs and documents.

In the Fire of the Eastern Front Hendrick Verton, 2012-02-29 Dutch SS accounts are very rare, particularly ones such as this covering recruitment, training, and frontline service, first with 5th SS Panzer Division Wiking, then later with SS Regiment Besslein. He not only informs and illustrates the general politics of the time but also explains how Dutch views of the Third Reich changed so radically, discusses the founding of the Waffen SS, the recruitment of Dutch volunteers into it, and why so many non-German Europeans volunteered to fight and risk their lives for Germany. His discussion of the intensity of the SS's training is also noteworthy. Of course, the core of the book lies in Hendrik's recollections of his service on the Eastern Front between 1941 and 1945, initially with the 5th SS Panzer Division Wiking. He offers the reader an impressive and fluid account, whether it be describing the midst of battle, surviving 50 degrees below zero, frosts, and frozen ground, or traversing a quagmire of roads. Of particular historical interest are his later recollections of service during 1944-45 with SS Regiment Besslein on the Eastern Front, focusing on his participation in the epic defense of Breslau; this siege remains little known in the West, and first-hand accounts such as Hendrik's are even scarcer, making this title a worthy addition to the literature on the Second World War.

The German Fallschirmtruppe 1936-41 (Revised edition) Karl-Heinz Golla, 2013-07-19 The Fallschirmtruppe of the Wehrmacht won recognition for their valor and endurance not only from their fellow German soldiers but from their former enemies as well. On the basis of careful and comprehensive research, including utilizing extensive unpublished documentary and personal materials, the author covers the history of the Fallschirmtruppe from its genesis and early training to its employment in combat in Scandinavia, the Albert Canal in Belgium, Holland, the Greek mainland, and of course at Crete. The reasons for the remarkable successes of the German Fallschirmtruppe during this period are analyzed, as are also the conceptual weaknesses inherent in its formation and the faults in the command and control during its combat employment. The author himself, a former Bundeswehr Fallschirmjäger and General Staff officer, has also utilized accounts from those who fought the Fallschirmtruppe and has thus been able to correct many errors perpetuated in previous books on this subject, besides providing more complete coverage. The text is supplemented by approximately 100 b/w photos and more than 25 detailed color maps. This is a remarkably detailed study, firmly based on documentary sources, and is destined to become one of the definitive works on its subject in the English language This revised edition has been prepared exactly according to the author s instructions Inside the Regiment Carole Divall,2011-06-13 In this companion volume to her pioneering study Redcoats Against Napoleon Carole Divall tells the fascinating inside story of a typical infantry regiment during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic wars Rather than focusing on the history of the 30th Regiment of the Line in action and on campaign she explores its organization traditions and hierarchy its personnel and the ethos that held it together Using primary source material in particular surviving regimental records War Office documents letters and journals Divall reconstructs the life of the 30th Foot and the lives of the men who served in it during a critical period in Europes military history Fighting for Time Charles D. Melson,2021-02-05 This military study examines the evolution of the Rhodesian armed services during the complex conflicts of the Cold War era Through the 1960s and 1970s Africa endured a series of conflicts involving Rhodesia South Africa and Portugal in conflict with the Frontline States The Cold War brought outside influences including American interest at the diplomatic economic and social level In Fighting for Time military historian Charles D Melson sheds new light on this complex and consequential period through analysis of the Rhodesian military Drawing on a wealth of primary sources Melson examines the Rhodesian military s evolution into a special operations force conducting intelligence driven operations Along the way he identifies key lessons to be learned from this low intensity conflict at the level of tactics techniques and procedures Melson looks closely at the military response to the emerging revolutionary threat and the development of general and special purpose units He addresses the critical use of airpower as a force multiplier supporting civil police and army efforts ranging from internal security and border control to internal and external combat operations the necessity of full time joint command structures and the escalation of cross border attacks and unconventional responses as the conflict evolved The Silent General - Horne of the First Army Don Farr,2007-06-08 Whether or not Henry Sinclair Horne was the silent General he might certainly if he were still alive lay claim to being the forgotten General of the Western Front His self effacement in a profession not renowned for shrinking violets undoubtedly made its contribution to his relative anonymity he wrote no memoirs nor kept anything more than sketchy diaries but it is still surprising that such an important contributor to the defeat of the German army in the Great War has not until now received the attentions of a biographer After a customary slow start in the late Victorian army Henry Horne first made an impact during the Boer War fortuitously as it was to turn out under the eyes of a Colonel Douglas Haig By the outbreak of the Great War Henry Horne was a Brigadier General Two years later he was a full General in command of the BEF s First Army His was one of the most rapid elevations to top rank recorded in the war In the two years he spent as an army commander he commanded the brilliant capture of Vimy Ridge the desperate defensive Battle of the Lys the successful assault on the Drocourt Qu ant Switch the outstanding crossing of the Canal du Nord and the liberation of Douai Cambrai Lens Valenciennes and Mons Napoleon always sought to ensure that his generals were lucky In that respect Henry Horne would have suited him He was lucky in having a long standing close professional relationship with the Commander in Chief FM Haig in having under his command at First Army the elite Canadian Corps and some distinguished British divisions and in having as his Chief of Staff one of the outstanding staff officers of the war But there was more to Henry Horne than just luck This belated biography assesses Henry Horne s relationship with Haig and the Canadian Corps It also evaluates his contribution to the technical advances of the artillery during the war and describes the battles which he conducted It attempts to accord to Henry Horne the recognition and credit that he deserves but which has for so long been withheld

Panzer Gunner Bruno Friesen,2008-02-19 An insider s account of training and service in Nazi Germany s twenty fifth Panzer Regiment during World War II There are few memoirs available of German Panzer crews that focus on the climactic last 12 months of the war on the Eastern Front 1944 45 What makes Bruno Friesen s account virtually unique is his family background his parents came from a German speaking Mennonite community in Ukraine and were to all intents and purposes culturally German To make matters even more complex in 1924 his parents left the Ukraine for Canada where Bruno was born In March 1939 he and his brother Oscar found themselves on a ship bound for Bremerhaven in Germany He barely spoke German and had never been to Germany nevertheless his father envisaged that a better life awaited them in the Third Reich Needless to say Bruno became caught up in the Second World War and in 1942 was drafted into the Wehrmacht The author provides a full account of his family background and how through these unusual circumstances he found himself a Canadian born German soldier The bulk of the book is a detailed account of the author s training and his subsequent service with 25th Panzer Regiment part of 7th Panzer Division As the title suggests Bruno Friesen served as a gunner aboard initially

Panzer IVs before crewing the lesser known Jagdpanzer IV tank hunter The author provides a fantastic amount of information about these two vehicles and how the crews actually fought in battle with them This kind of hands on detail has almost never been available before particularly such extensive information concerning the characteristics and combat performance of the Jagdpanzer IV Apart from providing a large fund of information about specific German tanks and their combat performance the author writes in great detail about the combat the experienced on the Eastern Front including tank battles in Rumania spring 1944 Lithuania in the summer of 1944 and West Prussia during early 1945 If one wants to know how German tank crews fought the Soviets in the last year of the war then this book provides an outstanding account containing material simply not found elsewhere The author closes his account by reflecting on his post war efforts to return to Canada which eventually succeeded in 1950 and his subsequent life there This book is not just a critique of armored fighting vehicles and tank warfare it is above all a very human story told in a lively conversational and fluid manner and is a remarkable contribution to the literature of the Second World War
