

Christian Poem

For Kids

By Maya Anthony

In the morning light so bright,
Birds take their soaring flight.
Flowers bloom, rivers gleam,
God's creation is like a dream.

Mountains tall, oceans deep,
Valleys where shadows creep.
Sunset's hue, stars that shine,
All declare, "The world is Thine!"

Children play, laughter rings,
To our Lord, our heart sings.
For the world so vast and wide,
God's love is always by our side.

Christian Poems About Children Growing Up:

My Mother's Christian Poems Evangelist L.R. Beebe,2020-06-05 My mother Ida Laura Ann Beebe was a very devout Christian for the last eighteen years of her life After she rededicated her life to Jesus she read her Bible every day and wrote a lot of poems Her love for Jesus inspired her to write these poems and I m sure you will agree as you read them that her love is reflected in them and that you will be inspired to feel that love too and to give your heart to Jesus Christian Poems, Speeches & Skits for Easter and Christmas Programs Pearl Robinson,2023-08-28 God inspired me to write this collection of poems speeches plays and skits for children s Christmas and Easter programs in 2005 The objective was to help people discover the reason for our Savior s Birth Death and Resurrection This book is an inspiration when read to your children and grandchildren even if you re not involved with planning and implementing a program However if you re the Children s Ministry leader this book has it all poems speeches and skits for children s Christmas and Easter programs It will touch the hearts of God s people and those who haven t accepted Christ s gift of Salvation My deepest desire and prayer is that when the unsaved hear or read my poems speeches and skits they will want to be saved Looking Into the Lives of Children Edith W. King,1999 Eleanor Roosevelt once described Edith King as a worldminded woman In LOOKING INTO THE LIVES OF CHILDREN A WORLDWIDE VIEW Edith King maintains this tradition which has guided her observation research writing and university teaching Taking as her central theme the wide ranging diversity and cultural pluralism which she sees as one of the key features of postmodern nations she looks at the ways in which education should be delivered to young children ages four to ten years in the complex and diverse contemporary society in which they grow up Her ultimate goal is that her writing will help teachers around the world to develop teaching strategies that acknowledge our human diversity within an overall context of equality and peacefulness Stories of Childhood Dean W. Duncan,2015-11-03 This study questions the widely held perception that books as an artistic medium are superior to and more respectable than film or television sometimes considered frivolous and pernicious Criticism of both the big and small screens often obscures their signal accomplishments and the entertainment and insight they provide The author analyzes our distaste for these media and the romanticizing of the printed word that accompanies it and argues that books and films are in fact quite complementary A broad survey of film and TV offerings explores what enacted narratives have taught us about the nature of childhood The Juvenile companion, and Sunday-school hive [afterw.] The Sunday school hive, and juvenile companion. Vol.4 [sic]; 3 [no.3]-43 ,1876 Suffering Childhood in Early America Anna Mae Duane,2011-11-01 Nothing tugs on American heartstrings more than an image of a suffering child Anna Mae Duane goes back to the nation s violent beginnings to examine how the ideal of childhood in early America was fundamental to forging concepts of ethnicity race and gender Duane argues that children had long been used to symbolize subservience but in the New World those old associations took on more meaning Drawing on a wide range of early American writing she explores how the figure of a suffering child accrued political weight as the work of infantilization connected the child to Native Americans slaves and women In the making of the young nation the figure of the child emerged as a vital conceptual tool for coming to terms with the effects of cultural and colonial violence and with time childhood became freighted with associations of vulnerability suffering and victimhood As Duane looks at how ideas about the child and childhood were manipulated by the colonizers and the colonized alike she reveals a powerful line of colonizing logic in which dependence and vulnerability are assigned great emotional weight When early Americans sought to make sense of intercultural contact and the conflict that often resulted they used the figure of the child to help displace their own fear of lost control and shifting power The Giant Book of Poetry William Roetzheim,2006 Winner or finalist in the Best Books National Book Award Poetry Anthology of the Year Benjamin Franklin Audio Book of the Year Foreword Magazine Audio Book of the Year and the Bill Fisher Award for Best New Fiction Over 750 pages of poetry spanning from 4 000 BC up to the present day and including a broad cross section of global poetry Footnotes for each poem specify each poem s form define unusual or archaic words and include notes about interpretation Multiple indexes including an index by subject simplify finding exactly the right poem for any situation The poems were specifically selected to appeal to readers new to poetry but even experienced poetry readers will find new and enjoyable poems The poems from the book are also available on audio CD Christian Poems Francis Rader Holeman,1865 The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1904 Self Culture ,1900
