Closure The Rush To End Grief And What It Costs Us:

Closure Nancy Berns, 2011-08-05 When it comes to the end of a relationship the loss of a loved one or even a national tragedy we are often told we need closure But while some people do find closure for their pain and grief many more feel closure does not exist and believe the notion only promises false hopes Sociologist Nancy Berns explores these ideas and their ramifications in her timely book Closure Berns uncovers the various interpretations and contradictory meanings of closure She identifies six types of closure talk revealing closure as a socially constructed concept a new emotion Berns also explores how closure has been applied widely in popular media and how the idea has been appropriated as a political tool and to sell products and services This book explains how the push for closure whether we find it helpful engaging or enraging is changing our society

The Myth of Closure Pauline Boss, 2021-12-14 How do we begin to cope with loss that cannot be resolved The COVID 19 pandemic has left many of us haunted by feelings of anxiety despair and even anger In this book pioneering therapist Pauline Boss identifies these vague feelings of distress as caused by ambiguous loss losses that remain unclear and hard to pin down and thus have no closure Collectively the world is grieving as the pandemic continues to change our everyday lives With a loss of trust in the world as a safe place a loss of certainty about health care education employment lingering anxieties plague many of us even as parts of the world are opening back up again Yet after so much loss our search must be for a sense of meaning and not something as elusive and impossible as closure This book provides many strategies for coping encouraging us to increase our tolerance of ambiguity and acknowledging our resilience as we express a normal grief and still look to the future with hope and possibility

Consuming Catastrophe Timothy Recuber, 2016-11-02 Horrified saddened and angered That was the American people's reaction to the 9 11 attacks Hurricane Katrina the Virginia Tech shootings and the 2008 financial crisis In Consuming Catastrophe Timothy Recuber presents a unique and provocative look at how these four very different disasters took a similar path through public consciousness He explores the myriad ways we engage with and negotiate our feelings about disasters and tragedies from omnipresent media broadcasts to relief fund efforts and promises to Never Forget Recuber explains how a specific and real kind of emotional connection to the victims becomes a crucial element in the creation use and consumption of mass mediation of disasters He links this to the concept of empathetic hedonism or the desire to understand or feel the suffering of others The ineffability of disasters makes them a spectacular and emotional force in contemporary American culture Consuming Catastrophe provides a lively analysis of the themes and meanings of tragedy and the emotions it engenders in the representation mediation and consumption of disasters

Death and the Moving Image Michele Aaron, 2015-02-13 Exploring gender race nation and narration this groundbreaking study isolates how mainstream cinema works to bestow value upon certain lives and specific socio cultural identities in a hierarchical and partisan way Dedicated to the popular to the pol

Reluctant Witnesses Arlene Stein, 2014-08-04 Reluctant Witnesses tells the story of the rise of Holocaust consciousness in the United States from the perspective of survivors and their descendants If survivors tended to see Holocaust storytelling as mainly a private affair their children who reached adulthood during the heyday of identity politics reclaimed their hidden family histories and transformed them into public stories "Save My Kid" Amanda M. Gengler,2020-01-21 A frank analysis of the medical and emotional inequalities that pervade the healthcare process for critically ill children Families who have a child with a life threatening illness face a daunting road ahead of them one that not only upends their everyday lives but also strikes at the very heart of parenthood In Save My Kid Amanda M Gengler traces the emotional difficulties these families navigate as they confront a fundamentally unequal healthcare system in the United States Gengler reveals the unrecognized everyday inequalities tangled up in the process of seeking medical care showing how different families manage their children s critical illnesses She also uncovers the role that emotional goals deeply rooted in the culture of illness and medicine play in medical decision making healthcare interactions and the end of children s lives A deeply compassionate read Save My Kid is an inside look at inequality in healthcare among those with the most at stake Not Now, Cancer, I'm Busy Melissa

Trevathan-Minnis,Deanne Meeks Brown,2022-11-15 Synopsis Are you or is someone you love facing a cancer diagnosis in the prime of life You re not alone The likelihood of developing cancer in one s lifetime is 1 in 2 for males and 1 in 3 for females and the numbers are rising A cancer diagnosis at any age is traumatic but young to middle aged adults who are often raising or planning for children establishing careers and getting on their financial feet face unique challenges When cancer strikes this group can become overwhelmed by navigating treatment options mounting debt from medical bills threats to fertility and the necessity of facing one s mortality It can become a mental battle ground In Not Now Cancer I m Busy Melissa Trevathan Minnis and Deanne Meeks Brown offer research resources and support to help you overcome the psychological trauma of cancer Sharing their own personal stories along with insights from other young cancer survivors these two mental health professionals guide you through the rollercoaster of emotions from diagnosis and treatment to transitioning back to life post treatment While the challenges of cancer survivorship are many so are the coping strategies available to help promote recovery and well being Not Now Cancer I m Busy addresses cancer through the lens of mental health and offers strategies to not only cope with the challenges of cancer but to build a life full of meaning and intention despite them From developing a fighting spirit and learning how to slow down to breaking down barriers to mental health and spiritual growth this book will help you tap into your personal strengths and resilience Although a cancer diagnosis in early and midlife can be earth shattering the trauma of cancer can actually leave you stronger and better equipped if you let it WORDS OF PRAISE OMG This is a fabulous book the one everyone dealing with cancer has been waiting for While the book is specifically addressed to YMA's Young and Middle Adults it is an exhaustive compendium of experience issues and directions for all those touched in any way by cancer victims survivors family friends and the rest of us who care in one way or another From diagnosis to survivorship or to disability and death Melissa and Deanne offer amazingly comprehensive research suggestions and enlightenment at every step of the journey they take us on Most interesting to me as a psychologist psychoanalyst and survivor of cancer at age 21 are the sections on post traumatic growth developing a personal narrative and the progression from surviving to thriving Not Now Cancer is an absolute triumph by two people who artfully weave their personal thriving experiences of themselves and of their families and friends with a wealth of incredible details of their cancer experiences that are equally well applicable to people of all ages who are faced with life threatening diagnoses or circumstances

Congratulations Melissa and Deanne and thanks Lawrence Hedges PhD PsyD ABPP Director the Listening Perspectives Study Center

Prisons and Punishment in Texas Hannah Thurston,2016-06-20 This book explores the identity of Texas as a state with a large and severe penal system It does so by assessing the narratives at work in Texas museums and tourist sites associated with prisons and punishment In such cultural institutions complex narratives are presented which show celebratory stories of Texan toughness in the penal sphere as well as poignant stories about the witnessing of executions comical stories that normalize the harsher aspects of Texan punishment and presentations about prison officers who have lost their lives in the war on crime In analysing these representations the book shows that Texan history plays an important role in the production of Texan self identity and that to understand the Texan commitment to harsh punishment we must be prepared to focus on Texan myths and memories Prisons and Punishment in Texas draws on diverse interdisciplinary work including criminology cultural studies about Southern values as well as research on cultural memory and dark tourism Museums are shown to be under researched sites of criminological significance which offer rich evidence through which penal imaginaries and the cultural role of punishment can be explored The book will be of great interest to criminologists as well as scholars of sociology cultural studies museum studies and politics

Narrative Productions of Meanings Donileen R. Loseke,2019-04-08 In Narrative Productions of Meanings Exploring the Work of Stories in Social Life Donileen R Loseke examines the importance of stories in an anti science anti fact era where a multitude of personal social and political problems surround meaning This book s basic argument is that within such a world narrative productions of meaning are particularly important because stories can appeal simultaneously to thinking feeling and moral evaluation and because they can do this in ways that have cultural interactional and personal dimensions This book develops a framework for social science examinations of narrative it outlines relationships between stories storytelling and culture and it explores the characteristics of several types of stories including self stories stories that persuade mass audiences that public resources are required to resolve intolerable conditions and stories that justify the contents of public policy It concludes with relationships between stories and democratic politics In multiple ways this analysis crosses common divides It draws from literature spanning multiple disciplines it treats thinking feeling and moral evaluation as inseparable it bridges cultural and social psychological perspectives and it demonstrates relationships between story structure and the work people do with stories
