The Contemporary Post-Apocalyptic Novel Diletta De Cristofaro, 2019-12-26 Traditional apocalyptic texts concern the advent of a better world at the end of history that will make sense of everything that happened before But what is at stake in the contemporary shift to apocalyptic narratives in which the utopian end of time is removed The Contemporary Post Apocalyptic Novel offers an innovative critical model for our cultural obsession with the end by focussing on the significance of time in the 21st century post apocalyptic novel and challenging traditional apocalyptic logic Once confined to the genre of science fiction the increasing popularity of end of the world narratives has caused apocalyptic writing to feature in the work of some of contemporary literature s most well known fiction writers Considering novels by Will Self Cormac McCarthy David Mitchell Emily St John Mandel Jeanette Winterson and others Diletta De Cristofaro frames the contemporary apocalyptic imagination as a critique of modernity s apocalyptic conception of time and history Interdisciplinary in scope the book historicises apocalyptic beliefs by exploring how relentlessly they have shaped the modern world David Mitchell's

Post-Secular World Rose Harris-Birtill, 2019-01-10 Since the publication of Ghostwritten 1999 David Mitchell has rapidly established himself as one of the most inventive and important British novelists of the 21st century In this landmark study Rose Harris Birtill reveals the extent to which Mitchell has created an interconnected fictional world across the full run of his writing Covering Mitchell s complete fictions from bestselling novels such as Cloud Atlas 2004 The Bone Clocks 2014 and number9dream 2001 to his short stories and his libretti for the operas Sunken Garden and Wake this book examines how Buddhist influences inform the ethical worldview that permeates his writing Using a comparative theoretical model drawn from the Tibetan mandala to map Mitchell s fictional world Harris Birtill positions Mitchell as central to a new generation of post secular writers who re examine the vital role of belief in galvanizing action amidst contemporary ecological political and humanitarian crises David Mitchell s Post Secular World features two substantial new interviews with the author a chronology of his fictions and a selected bibliography of important critical writings on his work The Cambridge most progressive writers working today His novels and short stories have mapped cycles of capitalist violence economic expansion and material despoliation in turn proposing radical visions of social and economic justice through cooperatives collective agreements and stewardship of the environment But if Robinson is readily considered a political author less attention has been paid to his craft and composition This book examines Robinson s concern with literary apprenticeship In novels such as the post apocalyptic The Wild Shore the intergenerational star ship narrative Aurora and the tale of Ice Age hunters Shaman Robinson creates characters who struggle with and against storytelling In these fictions apprentices battle against the limits of their interpretative powers as they come to recognise the real pleasures and the intense hardships of art and narrative Recollecting John Fowles / Wiedererinnerungen an John Fowles Guido Isekenmeier, Gerd Bayer, 2018 More than a decade after his death in 2005 this collection of essays celebrates the memory of John Fowles one of the champions of early postmodernist literature in England As the first publication of the German John Fowles Society founded in
