This third volume follows the continuing careers of authors such as Mem Fox, Bob Graham, Robin Klein, and Paul Jennings, and traces changes in the popularity of Australian themes and settings to identify publishing trends. Varied cultural aspects of modern day life are shown from globalization, commercialism, and the rise of the middle class in Asia to desktop publishing, outcome-based school curricula, and the modern obsession with celebrities, all of which are reflected in the type and quantity of books produced by Australian writers and publishers. The wealth of included material will extend researchers' understanding of the range of Australian children's books.

Children's Literature Abstracts, 1996 Children's Literature Association Quarterly, 1996

Collected Stories Victor Kelleher, 1999. This collection contains two of Victor Kelleher's powerful books of interwoven stories: The Traveller and Micky Darlin, as well as previously uncollected pieces. Taken together, they lead us on a journey, one which moves through the guilt-ridden, violent terrain of Central and Southern Africa, then shifts to an Australia which has yet to learn the lessons of pity and compassion, and ends where, in a sense, it began: in the raw, all too human world of the poor expatriate Irish living in London in the forties. Vivid, moving, and always finely crafted, this collection reveals those diverse qualities which have won Victor Kelleher major awards as a writer for both adults and children. Uncompromising in their emotional honesty.
