Dark Matter And Trojan Horses A Strategic Design Vocabulary:

Dark Matter and Trojan Horses Dan Hill, 2012 Strategic design is about applying the principles of traditional design to big picture systemic challenges such as healthcare education and the environment It redefines how problems are approached and aims to deliver more resilient solutions In this short book Dan Hill outlines a new vocabulary of design one that needs to be smuggled into the upper echelons of power He asserts that increasingly effective design means engaging with the messy politics the dark matter taking place above the designer's head And that may mean redesigning the organisation that hires you

Strategic Design for the Third Sector Xue Pei, 2025-05-20 This book discovers and demonstrates the strategic values of design within the context of the third sector a domain characterized by inherent complexity and the objective of effecting positive transformations across both economic and social dimensions Based on seven years of research it combines theoretical insights with hands on empirical studies offering a compelling narrative on the evolving roles of strategic design in third sector organisations Through an in depth analysis of best practices and four action research projects the book showcases how design enables third sector organisations to uncover opportunities manage innovation processes and facilitate meaningful collaboration among diverse stakeholders At its core it introduces a design framework to illustrate how a strategic design mindset together with methods and tools fosters stakeholder participation and co creation in the innovation process and how it inspires conversations and reflections on organizational and systemic changes The framework also offers actionable strategies for design researchers and practitioners willing to apply strategic design for addressing complex societal problems through creativity innovation strategy and a systemic lens

Creating Smart Cities Claudio Coletta, Leighton Evans, Liam Heaphy, Rob Kitchin, 2018-10-26 In cities around the world digital technologies are utilized to manage city services and infrastructures to govern urban life to solve urban issues and to drive local and regional economies While smart city advocates are keen to promote the benefits of smart urbanism increased efficiency sustainability resilience competitiveness safety and security critics point to the negative effects such as the production of technocratic governance the corporatization of urban services technological lock ins privacy harms and vulnerability to cyberattack This book through a range of international case studies suggests social political and practical interventions that would enable more equitable and just smart cities reaping the benefits of smart city initiatives while minimizing some of their perils Included are case studies from Ireland the United States of America Colombia the

Netherlands Singapore India and the United Kingdom These chapters discuss a range of issues including political economy citizenship standards testbedding urban regeneration ethics surveillance privacy and cybersecurity This book will be of interest to urban policymakers as well as researchers in Regional Studies and Urban Planning Architecture and Space Re-imagined Richard Bower, 2016-06-10 As with so many facets of contemporary western life architecture and space are often experienced and understood as a commodity or product The premise of this book is to offer alternatives to the practices and values of such westernised space and Architecture with a capital A by exploring the participatory and grass roots practices used in alternative development models in the Global South This process re contextualises the spaces values and relationships produced by such alternative methods of development and social agency It asks whether such spatial practices provide concrete realisations of some key concepts of Western spatial theory questioning whether we might challenge the space and architectures of capitalist development by learning from the places and practices of others Exploring these themes offers a critical examination of alternative development practices methods in the Global South re contextualising them as architectural engagements with socio political space The comparison of such interdisciplinary contexts and discourses reveals the political social and economic resonances inherent between these previously unconnected spatial protagonists The interdependence of spatial issues of choice value and identity are revealed through a comparative study of the discourses of Henri Lefebvre John Turner Doreen Massey and Nabeel Hamdi These key protagonists offer a critical framework of discourses from which further connections to socio spatial discourses and concepts are made including post marxist theory orientalism post structural pluralism development anthropology post colonial theory hybridity difference and subalterneity By looking to the spaces and practices of alternative development in the Global South this book offers a critical reflection upon the working practices of Westernised architecture and other spatial and political practices In exploring the methodologies implications and values of such participatory development practices this book ultimately seeks to articulate the positive potential and political of learning from the difference multiplicity and otherness of development practice in order to re imagine architecture and space Mapping the In-between: Interdisciplinary Methods for Envisioning other Futures Lýdia Grešáková, Zuzana Tabačková, Spolka, 2020-02-23 The bilingual publication Mapping the in between Interdisciplinary methods for envisioning other futures is the outcome of the international summer school that explored the potential of interdisciplinary mapping and utopian visioning as an alternative way of developing the city During the school various proposals were made as actual alternatives to those of the commodified real estate market and the dreams of large developments of filling in the empty spaces of the many brownfields The texts collected here are a unique insight into the new possible models of cooperation and collaboration that were developed in Ko ice Slovakia with the help of Never never school s participants Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice _ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI

Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

Pavilions, Pop Ups and Parasols Leon van Schaik, Fleur Watson, 2015-06-02 Around the world a new architectural form is emerging In public places a progressive architecture is being commissioned to promote open ended undetermined lightly programmed or unprogrammed interactions between people This new phenomenon of architectural form Pavilions Pop Ups and Parasols is presaged by rapidly changing social relationships flowing from social media such as Facebook Twitter and Instagram The nexus between real and virtual meeting is effectively being reinvented by innovative and creative architectural practices People meet in new and responsive ways architects meet their clients in new forums knowledge is met and achieved in new and interactive frameworks It contrasts bluntly with the commercially structured interactions of shopping malls and the increasingly deliberate interactions available in cultural institutions These experiences imbue a new type of client casually engaged flocking hacking crowd funding and self helping Contributors include Rob Bevan Pia Ednie Brown Roan Ching Yueh Dan Hill Martyn Hook Minsuk Cho Andrea Kahn Felicity Scott Akira Suzuki Contributing architects include Alisa Andrasek Biothing Peter Cook CRAB studio CJ Lim Studio 8 Tom Holbrook 5th Studio Matthias Hollwich HWKN Mamou Mani Architects Benedetta Tagliabue EMBT

Narrative Environments and Experience Design Tricia Austin, 2020-04-15 This book argues narrative people and place are inseparable and pursues the consequences of this insight through the design of narrative environments This is a new and distinct area of practice that weaves together and extends narrative theory spatial theory and design theory Examples of narrative spaces such as exhibitions brand experiences urban design and socially engaged participatory interventions in the public realm are explored to show how space acts as a medium of communication through a synthesis of materials structures and technologies and how particular social behaviours are reproduced or critiqued through spatial narratives This book will be of interest to scholars in design studies urban studies architecture new materialism and design practitioners in the creative industries
