Community Volunteers in Japan Lynne Y. Nakano, 2005 Based on extensive original research this book explores the reality of volunteering in an urban residential Japanese neighbourhood Community Volunteers in Japan Lynne Nakano, 2005 Volunteering is a recent and highly visible phenomenon in Japan adopted as a meaningful social activity by millions of Japanese and covered widely in the Japanese media This book based on extensive original research tells the stories of community volunteers who make social change through their everyday acts It discusses their experiences in children s activities the parent teachers association juvenile delinquency prevention campaigns and care of the elderly It explores their conflicts and their motivations and argues that personal decisions to volunteer and acts of volunteering besides being personal choices are productive of larger discussions of the needs and directions of Japanese society Civil Society and International Students in Japan Polina Ivanova, 2023-07-14 This book explores encounters and interactions between international students and local civil society organizations CSOs in Japan Based on the results of a cross case analysis this study reveals the possibilities for international students in Japan of creating social capital in the short term in culturally and socially diverse groups While a conventional approach sees universities as the main support providers this research shows the role of local CSOs as alternative actors offering international student support Unlike the long standing paradigm viewing Japanese civil society as top down and closely following the government this book uncovers many decentralized and bottom up organizational types Furthermore it highlights an active part taken by foreign staff and volunteers in Japanese CSOs which challenges the guest host dichotomy of the previous literature Presenting a reconsidered insight into the role of international students and their interaction with CSOs in community building this book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian studies and migration studies as well as organizers of CSOs and faculty of international higher education institutions
