Finding Community Diana Leafe Christian, 2007-05-01 Finding community is as critical as obtaining food and shelter since the need to belong is what makes us human The isolation and loneliness of modern life have led many people to search for deeper connection which has resulted in a renewed interest in intentional communities These intentional communities or ecovillages are an appealing choice for like minded people who seek to create a family oriented and ecologically sustainable lifestyle a lifestyle they are unlikely to find anywhere else However the notion of an intentional community can still be a tremendous leap for some deterred perhaps by a misguided vision of eking out a hardscrabble existence with little reward In fact

successful ecovillages thrive because of the combined skills and resources of their members Finding Community presents a thorough overview of ecovillages and intentional communities and offers solid advice on how to research thoroughly visit thoughtfully evaluate intelligently and join gracefully Useful considerations include Important questions to ask of members and of yourself Signs of a healthy and not so healthy community Cost of joining and staying Common blunders to avoid Finding Community provides intriguing possibilities to readers who are seeking a more cooperative sustainable and meaningful life Diana Leafe Christian is the author of Creating a Life Together and editor of Communities magazine She lives at Earthhaven Ecovillage in North Carolina Communities Directory Fellowship for Intentional Community, Fellowship for Intentional Community Staff, 1999-06-01 Communities Directory, 2016-07-31 A more cooperative world is possible If we were to put the entire history of humankind into a 24 hour day it would only be in the past couple minutes that civilization has looked like this Pollution Exploitation Isolation Disparity Symptoms of a society out of control and certainly not one that was designed to last But what if we could live differently It turns out more than 100 000 people already are in ecovillages cohousing communes and communities of all kinds around the world They re working together to create fair sustainable and satisfying models of society How can you find intentional communities The answer is the Communities Directory an online and printed catalog of intentional communities in the US and all over the planet For 25 years the Fellowship for Intentional Community FIC has been building innovating and keeping this catalog fresh A book to find the community that suits you In addition to profiling more than 1 000 communities the book includes full page maps showing where communities are located charts that compare communities by more than 30 different qualities and an easy index to find communities interested in specific pursuits Guide to Intentional Communities Cooperative Living This epic book includes tons of bonus content including articles on how to start or join a community the basics of group dynamics and decision making and countless resources and links to help your community thrive
