Compartimenten Van Vernietiging Over Genocidale Regimes En Hun Daders:

The Holocaust, Israel and 'the Jew' Evelien Gans, Remco Ensels, 2025-10-01 This book is the first comprehensive study of postwar antisemitism in the Netherlands. It focuses on the way stereotypes are passed on from one decade to the next as reflected in public debates, the mass media, protests and commemorations, and everyday interactions. The Holocaust, Israel and the Jew explores the ways in which old stories and phrases relating to the stereotypical Jew are recycled and modified for new uses, linking the antisemitism of the early postwar years to its enduring manifestations in today's world. The Dutch case is interesting because of the apparent contrast between the Netherlands' famous tradition of tolerance and the large numbers of Jews who were deported and murdered in the Second World War. The book sheds light on the dark side of this so-called Dutch paradox in manifestations of aversion and guilt after 1945. In this context, the abusive taunt 'They forgot to gas you' can be seen as the first radical expression of postwar antisemitism, as well as an indication of how the Holocaust came to be turned against the Jews. The identification of the Jew with the gas chamber spread from the streets to football stadiums and from verbal abuse to pamphlet and protest. The slogan 'Hamas, Hamas! All the Jews to the gas' indicates that Israel became a second marker of postwar antisemitism. The chapters cover themes including soccer-related antisemitism, Jewish responses, philosemitism, antisemitism in Dutch Moroccan and Dutch Turkish communities, contentious acts of remembrance, the neo-Nazi tradition, and the legacy of Theo van Gogh. The book concludes with a lengthy epilogue on the Jew in the politics of the radical right, the attacks in Paris in 2015, and the refugee crisis. The stereotype of the Jew appears to be transferable to other minorities.

Propaganda and the Genocide in Indonesia Saskia Wieringa, Nursyahbani Katjasungkana, 2018-10-26. In Indonesia, the events of 1st October 1965 were followed by a campaign to annihilate the Communist Party and its alleged sympathisers. It resulted in the murder of an estimate of one million people, a genocide that counts as one of the largest mass murders after WWII, and the incarceration of another million, many of them for a decade or more without any legal process. This drive was justified and enabled by a propaganda campaign in which communists were painted as atheist, hypersexual, amoral, and intent to destroy the nation. To date, the effects of this campaign are still felt, and the victims are denied the right of association and freedom of speech. This book presents the history of the genocide and propaganda campaign and the process towards the International People's Tribunal on 1965 crimes against humanity in Indonesia (IPT 1965), which was held in November 2015 in The Hague, The Netherlands. The authors, an Indonesian Human Rights lawyer and a Dutch academic, examine this unique event, which for the first time brings these crimes before an international court and its verdict. They single out the campaign of hate propaganda as it provided the incitement to kill so many Indonesians, and why this propaganda campaign is effective to this day. The first book on this topic, it fills a significant gap in Asian Studies and
