Compendium van het staatsrecht, 1992-01-01 The enforceability of the human right to adequate food Bart

Wernaart, 2023-09-04 While the right to adequate food is often discussed in the context of developing countries especially in situations where access to adequate food is a problem on a larger scale this book focusses on the right to food in two Western countries in which theoretically the circumstances allow this right to be enjoyed by each individual Through a legal comparative study the enforceability of the right to food is compared between the Netherlands and Belgium in light of the current UN Human Rights system There seems to be a difference between what the countries do what they say they do and what they should do on the matter As it appears the coincidental constitutional circumstances mainly determine the enforceability of the right to food rather than the content of the human right in itself This book includes a thorough analysis of suitable comparative legal methodology and the embedment of the right to food in the UN human right system Furthermore for both countries an in depth analysis of the case law on the right to food mostly concerning the status of foreigners the constitutional context in which the Judiciary operates and the relevant UN reports and subsequent procedures are outlined Finally recommendations are made to both countries and the relevant UN Committees Introduction to

Dutch Law Jeroen Chorus, 2016-04-18 A standard legal resource since its first edition in 1978 this matchless book has proven itself the ideal overview of Dutch law for foreign lawyers This Fifth Edition fully updates its systematic description of the legal sources institutions and concepts in all major fields of law Recent developments covered include the progressive implementation of standards set by international conventions the reorganization of the judiciary the statute on environmental law and the re codification of private international law The continuing influence of European law is evident in many fields perhaps most notably in family law The various chapters are written by experts scholars and lawyers in particular fields and provide an authoritative overview of each field The historical sources of Dutch law are discussed as well as Dutch legal culture judicial organization legal education and the legal profession These chapters are followed by introductions to essential issues of private and public law and labour law The last chapter examines questions of legal philosophy The only resource of its kind available this book is unmatched as a thorough guide to further research It offers practitioners particularly foreign lawyers a quick and reliable way into any area of Dutch law that they may be required to research It will also be of great value to comparatists especially those studying the influence of European law on national legal systems scholars and students Like previous editions the Fifth Edition has been prepared under the auspices of the Netherlands Comparative Law Association Constitutional Identity in a Europe of Multilevel Constitutionalism Christian Calliess, Gerhard van der Schyff, 2019-10-24 The constitutional identity of the Member States is a topic of increasing importance in understanding the interaction between the EU and its Member States This is because the EU is enjoined to respect the constitutional identities of its Member States in accordance with Article 4 2 TEU There is also a trend among Member States to articulate their constitutional identities in particular in relation to European integration In this regard this volume fills a need in scholarship by presenting critical analyses of the constitutional identities of selected Member States Leading and well placed experts contribute country studies on a range of states which are compared using a framework that can be applied to other Member States as well The analyses and comparison of Member States constitutional identities take place in the context of the EU s multilevel architecture

Human Rights from Exclusion to Inclusion: Principles and Practice Fons Coomans, Cees Flinterman, Fred Grünfeld, Ingrid Westendorp, Jan Willems, 2021-10-25 Professor Theo van Boven has made his mark in the field of human rights by writing a vast number of scholarly articles reports studies congress papers and the like covering many topics Most of his work has been published in law journals textbooks Festschriften and other sources Since not all of these publications are easily accessible it is the purpose of this anthology to bring together a selection of his writings from 1966 to 1998 The editors have focused on those subjects that played a major part during Theo van Boven s career and that are in their view the most interesting to the reader That is why this volume contains papers on such issues as the United Nations and its role as regards human rights racial discrimination the right to rehabilitation the international criminal tribunals the role of NGOs and many more The papers have been arranged in different groups under general headings Within each group articles dealing with the same subject have been put in chronological order A detailed bibliography covering most of Theo van Boven s publications is included in this book as an annex All through his work Theo van Boven displays his sound theoretical background as well as his enormous practical experience This combination makes his writings so attractive and compelling to read
