Creating A Home Creating A Home:

A Material Culture Ethnography of Home-Making in Asylum Reception Friedemann Yi-Neumann, 2025-05-10 This book explores what it takes to create a sense of home while in exile drawing on ethnographic research conducted in German asylum reception facilities from 2016-2020. From a material culture perspective it examines how asylum seekers and migrants with precarious legal status translate aspects of home into challenging environments. Through these translations processual shifts of objects, habits and ideas across borders, migrants work to reassemble a sense of belonging. The book delves into the material, social and individual efforts involved in this homing process while highlighting the ongoing impact of dispossession and loss. By focusing on personal attachments to objects and the broader context of migration, this work offers a unique perspective on forced migration, home cultures and the quest for ontological security. The book will be of interest to scholars, researchers and students in disciplines such as anthropology, sociology and human geography as well as other research interested in ethnographic perspectives on the respective topics.

Creating the Artful Home Karen Zukowski, 2006 Creating the Artful Home: the Aesthetic Movement and Its Influence on Home Decor covers the history of a movement that emphasized art for art's sake and the influence it had on home decor. The Aesthetic Movement in America lasted just a few decades, 1870-1900, and served mainly as a bridge between the high Victorian sensibility and the radical shift to the Arts and Crafts style. The movement germinated among artists who used opulent color, decorative patterning and lavish materials simply for the aesthetic effects they could evoke. It was commonly held that a home that expressed an artful, harmonious soul would instill high aesthetic and moral merit in its inhabitants. The Aesthetic Movement in America helped to popularize the idea that everyone should be able to enjoy beautiful, well-made homes and furnishings, not just the very wealthy. Artful homes could be composed from brilliant antique store finds, discriminating department store purchases and gems hand-made by the ladies of the house. It was the moment when people embraced the idea that only a beautiful home could be a happy home. Karen Zukowski delves into the movement's establishment, evolution and main characters and shows how today's homes can incorporate Aesthetic principles. Through suggestion rather than statement, sensuality, massive use of symbols and synaesthetic effects that is correspondence between words, colors and music. How influential designers such as Clarence Cook and Charles Eastlake popularized the idea that beautiful homes with tasteful furnishings could be available to practically everyone. How today's designers, manufacturers and retailers deploy the very same stylistic markers of the Aesthetic Movement: rich color, layered pattern and texture, mixtures of historical motifs.

Beeckmans, Alessandra Gola, Ashika Singh, Hilde Heynen, 2022-01-17 Making Home's in Displacement critically rethinks the relationship between home and displacement from a spatial material and architectural perspective Recent scholarship in the social sciences has investigated how migrants and refugees create and reproduce home under new conditions thereby unpacking the seemingly contradictory positions of making a home and overcoming its loss Yet making home's in displacement is also a spatial practice one which intrinsically relates to the fabrication of the built environment worldwide Conceptually the book is divided along four spatial sites referred to as camp shelter city and house which are approached with a multitude of perspectives ranging from urban planning and architecture to anthropology geography philosophy gender studies and urban history all with a common focus on space and spatiality By articulating everyday homemaking experiences of migrants and refugees as spatial practices in a variety of geopolitical and historical contexts this edited volume adds a novel perspective to the existing interdisciplinary scholarship at the intersection of home and displacement It equally intends to broaden the canon of architectural histories and theories by including migrants and refugees spatial agencies and place making practices to its annals By highlighting the political in the spatial and vice versa this volume sets out to decentralise and decolonise current definitions of home and displacement striving for a more pluralistic outlook on the idea of home
