Armelin, 2016-08-15 The primary purpose of this book is to inspire Christian clergymen leaders and educators as well as parents and students to embrace promote and support the God ordained vision and mission of private Christian day schools Also this book profoundly expounds on how and why Christian day schools are very much relevant or needed in today's troublesome world This book is divided into four parts which expounds on foundational principles of a Christian day school God ordained assignments in the organizational structure of a Christian day school practical components of a quality Christian day school and posterity of Christian day schools The importance of being called equipped and anointed by God to serve within any capacity of a Christian day school is highlighted in this book as well Most importantly Christian day schools are established to meet the needs of the whole child spirit soul and body Resources in Education, 1997-10 Faith-Based Education That Constructs HeeKap Lee, 2010-08-09 Constructivism is everywhere It is a hot issue at this time in the field of philosophy education technology and religion However can constructivism be an alternative approach in faith based education While some conclude that Jesus knew learning was an active knowledge creating process and that he always encouraged his disciples to think deeply and go beyond the surface level others would find that constructivism undercuts faith based education because of its claims to relativity For example constructivists claim that meaning is imposed on the world by us rather than existing in the world independently from us Thus they proclaim that truth is relative to particular times places and people Christians hold that truth does exist absolutely So how can there be a way forward for faith based educators who see the good in the constructivist approach In Faith Based Education that Constructs readers will find a unique approach whereby constructivism may appropriately be applied to a faith based education setting Although disagreement can occur between constructivism and faith based education this book concludes that constructivist thought and Christian faith based education are in the end congruent and harmonious in significant ways

Those faith based educators who continue to hold cautionary views of radical constructivist assertions against absolute truths need not disregard all other aspects of constructivism Postmodern Children's Ministry Ivy Beckwith,2009-08-30 This practical thought provoking book presents a new paradigm for children s ministry in the emerging 21ST century and explores how churches are currently putting that vision into practice Advocating the need to regard children as full participants in their faith communities the book provides strategies for building intergenerational community where children feel they belong and have the opportunity to serve The Christian Advocate ,1912 Five-Minute Sunday School Activities for Preschoolers Mary J.
