Francesco, 2022-03-24 This book provides a critical examination of over 300 historical works about the French Revolution published in Europe in particular in France Great Britain Germany Italy and Russia as well as in the United States between 1789 and 1989 It also goes on to examine recent trends in French Revolution historiography and consider where histories of this landmark event may go in the future By emphasizing the elements which have been valued or hidden exalted or silenced Historicizing the French Revolution shows how reflections on 1789 are always fundamentally tied to the times in which they are formulated Antonino De Francesco looks at the ways in which these historical accounts can be seen to support and at times contrast with the formation of political modernity both in national and international contexts as it has taken shape in the hundreds of years that have followed this key moment in world history Jane Austen's Aunt Behind Bars Stephen Wade, 2013 The collected essays explore the lives of several writers in Georgian and Victorian Britain in terms of their knowledge and experience of prison life This book focuses on the lives of the writers themselves or on the prison stretches endured by their relatives or acquaintances Some of these writers were locked up for debt while others were deprived of liberty for sedition or treason Here the reader will find amongst many other stories accounts of Dickens's father in debtors prison of Leigh Hunt living with his whole family in The Surrey House of Correction and of Oscar Wilde in Reading Gaol
