Clustering Dynamics And The Location Of High Tech Firms Contributions To Economics:

Clustering Dynamics and the Location of High-Tech-Firms Mario A. Maggioni, 2012-12-06 Across a line drawn from New York to Los Angeles the level of economic development is different. This book looks at the complexity of the topic of industrial site planning. Levels and actors are understood and discussed in terms of their mutual interaction. There is no stable end state in any industrial sector. At best these are states of balance in motion. The aim is therefore to show paths and phases of development that help to overcome stagnation thresholds and to explore the triggering moments for new dynamics. Technological justifications such as AI Industry 4.0 decarbonization are only one dimension. Industrial policy cooperation models intercommunal for example in the case between market participants and producers as well as integrative planning activities both have socio-economic and ecological dimensions. Based on various regional examples from central Germany and certain international comparisons this volume helps illustrate industrial location developments in the context of ongoing regional structural changes. The author's architect and member of relevant specialist organizations MBA in Switzerland and the USA involvement with a wide variety of projects monuments university and industrial buildings residential construction etc over almost 40 years is based on design and construction practice. Furthermore 7 technical experts have reflected on the diverse dimension of the subject presented in this volume. Additionally deindustrialization scenarios are contrasted with the necessity and path to neo-industrialization.
