Close Personal Peripheral Anthropological Knowledge:

Up Close and Personal Cris Shore, Susanna Trnka, 2013-06-01 Combining rich personal accounts from twelve veteran anthropologists with reflexive analyses of the state of anthropology today this book is a treatise on theory and method offering fresh insights into the production of anthropological knowledge from the creation of key concepts to major paradigm shifts Particular focus is given to how peripheral perspectives can help re shape the discipline and the ways that anthropologists think about contemporary culture and society From urban Maori communities in Aotearoa New Zealand to the Highlands of Papua New Guinea from Arnhem Land in Australia to the villages of Yorkshire these accounts take us to the heart of the anthropological endeavour decentring mainstream perspectives and revealing the intimate relationships and processes that create anthropological knowledge

Parenting Like an Australian Damien Cave, 2023-05-30 A beautiful tale of one family trying to figure things out and at the same time a brilliant synthesis of a century of psychological science on how all of us can learn to dive headfirst into challenges grow and adapt and ultimately do well in life Angela Duckworth New York Times bestselling author of Grit Raise kids to be strong confident and happy by parenting the Australian way Damien Cave and his wife Diana thought they understood what it meant to take risks As two journalists who traveled the world covering pressing international stories they were convinced they had seen it all that is until they moved to Australia Suddenly their kids were being thrown into giant Pacific waves in intensive lifeguard bootcamps and they were expected to be present and participating instead of obsessing about work or politics They soon noticed what seemed to be a societal surrender of control to nature and community In other words Their American customs were completely disrupted Living their new beachside life didn't end up being a relaxing retreat but instead caused a complete reevaluation of the ways they acted as people and parents and it all had to do with taking unexpected risks and learning how to manage them New York Times Australia Bureau Chief Damien Cave delivers an impactful and informative account of how risk taking in parenting and in all aspects of life creates happier healthier individuals and communities Cave's exploration of Australian parenting culture through gripping research and storytelling will have you questioning everything you thought you knew about safety risk parenting and ultimately being human An illuminating parenting guide a takedown of America's self esteem industrial complex and a deep study of contrasts between the Australian and American minds Pamela Druckerman New York Times bestselling author of Bringing Up Be

War and Women Across Continents Shirley Ardener, Fiona Armitage-Woodward, Lidia D. Sciama, 2016-02 Drawing on family materials historical records and eyewitness accounts this book shows the impact of war on individual women caught up in diverse and often treacherous situations It relates stories of partisans in Holland an Italian woman carrying guns and provisions in the face of hostile soldiers and Kikuyu women involved in the Mau Mau insurrection in Kenya A woman displaced from Silesia recalls fleeing with children across war torn Germany and women caught up in conflicts in Burma and in Rwanda share their tales War's aftermath can be traumatic as shown by journalists in Libya and by a midwife on the Cambodian border who helps refugees to give birth and regain hope Finally British women on active service in Afghanistan and at NATO headquarters also speak Durkheim in Dialogue Sondra L. Hausner, 2013-11-01 One hundred years after the publication of the great sociological treatise The Elementary Forms of Religious Life this new volume shows how aptly Durkheim's theories still resonate with the study of contemporary and historical religious societies The volume applies the Durkheimian model to multiple cases probing its resilience wondering where it might be tweaked and asking which aspects have best stood the test of time A dialogue between theory and ethnography this book shows how Durkheimian sociology has become a mainstay of social thought and theory pointing to multiple ways in which Durkheim's work on religion remains relevant to our thinking about culture Cooling Down Susanna Hoffman, Thomas Hylland Eriksen, Paulo Mendes, 2022-02-11 Climate change is a slowly advancing crisis sweeping over the planet and affecting different habitats in strikingly diverse ways While nations have signed treaties and implemented policies most actual climate change assessments adaptations and countermeasures take place at the local level People are responding by adjusting their practices livelihoods and cultures protesting and migrating This book portrays the diversity of explanations and remedies as expressed at the community level and its emphasis on the crucial importance of ethnographic detail in demonstrating how people in different parts of the world are scaling down the phenomenon of global warming Doing Diversity in Museums and Heritage Sharon Macdonald, 2022-12-02 The museum and heritage sector has been shaken by debates over how to address colonialism migration Islamophobia LGBTI and multiple other forms of difference This major multi researcher ethnography of museums and heritage in Berlin provides new insight into how diversity is understood and put into action in museums and heritage Exploring new initiatives and approaches the book shows how these work or do not in practice By doing so it highlights ways forward for research and action for the future The fieldwork locations on which this book is based include the Humboldt Forum the Museum of Islamic Art the Museum für Naturkunde and the Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe as well as Berlin streets and protests Land and Language in Cape York Peninsula and the Gulf Country Jean-Christophe Verstraete, Diane Hafner, 2016-02-18 This volume offers a state of the art survey of linguistic anthropological archaeological and historical work focused on Cape York Peninsula and the Gulf Country in Australia's northeast The volume also honours Bruce Rigsby emeritus professor of anthropology at the University of Queensland whose work has inspired all of the contributors The papers in the volume are organized in terms of five key themes including the use of historical and archaeological methods to reconstruct aspects of language and social organization anthropological and linguistic work uncovering aspects of world view embedded in languages and ethnographic data sets the study of post contact transformations in language and society and the return of archival data to communities Its thematic intersections draw together the varied disciplinary threads in an overview of the cultures and languages of the region and will appeal to all those interested in Australian Aboriginal studies linguistics anthropology and associated disciplines

Healthization Susanna Trnka, 2025-09-30 What does it mean to be healthy Is it a measure of physical illness of a mental health condition or of emotional control In twenty first century Aotearoa New Zealand it is all of the above Being healthy in this country requires an investment of extensive work resources and time Because while it encompasses the above categories for many young people in Aotearoa New Zealand health also extends to having strong trusted friendships to feeling that one's emotions are being recognized while recognizing the emotions of others Health for these youth may also consist of creating a daily space for mindfulness while maintaining productivity working up the motivation to work out quantifying and graphing nutrition stats being able to talk openly about one's mental health and maybe even wearing the right lipstick These activities are particularly salient in Aotearoa New Zealand where the past forty years have witnessed a growing emphasis on the importance of patient self responsibility and where the state has invested heavily in health even introducing a wellbeing budget that tracks the economy via wellbeing measures All of these activities add up to a concept and a worldview that anthropologist Susanna Trnka conceptualizes as healthization Through this framework managing one's emotions keeping one's sense of balance and tracking the number of miles run swum or bicycled become overlapping all consuming activities to the point of almost encompassing life itself By analyzing ethnographic interviews with young people Trnka reveals the emotional financial and deeply personal ideas at stake as understandings of health shift in the minds of young people Often at the vanguard of new trends in mental health physical fitness and digital health technologies the youth in Aotearoa New Zealand enact what it means to be well in the twenty first century

The Routledge Companion to Design Research Paul A. Rodgers, Joyce Yee, 2023-07-31 This new edition of The Routledge Companion to Design Research offers an updated comprehensive examination of design research celebrating a plurality of voices and range of conceptual methodological technological and theoretical approaches evident in contemporary design research This volume comprises thirty eight original and high quality design research chapters from contributors around the world with offerings from the vast array of disciplines in and around modern design praxis including areas such as industrial and product design visual communication interaction design fashion design service design engineering and architecture The Companion is divided into four distinct sections with chapters that examine the nature and process of design research the purpose of design research and how one might embark on design research They also explore how leading design researchers conduct their design research through formulating and asking questions in novel ways and the creative methods and tools they use to collect and analyse data The Companion also includes a number of case studies that illustrate how one might best communicate and disseminate design research through contributions that offer techniques for writing and publicising research The Routledge Companion to Design Research has a wide appeal to researchers and educators in design and design related disciplines such as engineering business marketing and computing and will make an invaluable contribution to state of the art design research at postgraduate doctoral and post doctoral levels and teaching across a wide range of different disciplines and Property Rights Ulrika Kolben Waaranperä, 2021-10-31 For more than a century property rights to land in Molo in the Kenyan highlands have been subjected to diverse reforms and desires Colonial and independent state administrations have restructured land tenure systems to establish and maintain authority or alleviate landlessness Meanwhile people on the ground have developed their own ideas about property rights place and people Via a detailed political ethnography Ulrika Kolben Waaranperä uncovers the heterodox notion of property rights that has emerged as land has been redistributed settlement schemes established electricity lines drawn and electoral violence mobilized The book makes an important contribution to the study of land and politics in Kenya and beyond by drawing attention to how conceptions of property rights are shaped by and constitutive of relations of belonging and authority This relational view challenges the universal definition of property rights undergirding most contemporary land reforms Instead property rights are situated within the political and rendered legible for both definitional and distributional debates In effect land reform is posited as a fundamentally political undertaking
