Suter,Emma Smith,Brian D. Denman,2019-05-27 Educational practices have rapidly changed in the last few decades especially in how exchanges of information and learning are delivered and processed Yet while the field of international comparative studies has grown there has not been an extensive study on the relationship between educational practices students and how practitioners are prepared and trained This handbook explores international educational practices and behaviours through new research and a review of existing research with chapters spread across six parts Part I Introduction to Research Practices in Comparative Studies of Education Part II Research Methods Part III Policy Transfer Research through International Comparisons Part IV Use of Student time in Formal and Informal Settings Part V School Practices from Early Childhood through Secondary School Part VI Conclusion Lessons from Large Scale Studies Trust, Accountability and Capacity in Education System Reform Melanie Ehren,Jacqueline Baxter,2020-12-29 This global collection brings a new perspective to the field of comparative education by presenting trust capacity and accountability as the three building blocks of education systems and education system reform In exploring how these three factors relate to student learning outcomes across different international contexts this book provides a powerful framework for a more equal system Drawing upon research and case studies from scholars policymakers and experts from international agencies across five continents this book shows how trust capacity and accountability interact in ways and with consequences that vary among countries pointing readers towards understanding potential leverage points for system change Trust Accountability and Capacity in Education System Reform illuminates how these three concepts are embedded in an institutional context temporally socially and institutionally and offers an analysis that will be of use to researchers policymakers and agencies working in comparative education and towards education system reform Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 Generic license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429344855>

The BERA/SAGE Handbook of Educational Research Dominic Wyse, Neil Selwyn, Emma Smith, Larry E. Suter, 2016-12-15 Education has continued to grow in stature and significance as an academic discipline In addition to world renowned research studies the growth of education has been seen in the methodology and methods underpinning its research The BERA SAGE Handbook of Educational Research provides a cutting edge account of the research and methodology that is creating new understandings for education research policy and practice Over two volumes the handbook addresses educational research in six essential components Section 1 Understanding Research Section 2 Planning Research Section 3 Approaches to Research Section 4 Acquiring Data Section 5 Analysing Data Section 6 Reporting Disseminating and Evaluating Research Featuring contributions from more than 50 of the biggest names in the international field The BERA SAGE Handbook of Educational Research represents a very significant contribution to the development of education A Companion to Research in Education Alan D. Reid, E. Paul Hart, Michael A. Peters, 2013-11-11 This volume offers a unique commentary on the diverse ways that educational inquiry is conceived designed and critiqued An international team of scholars examines cross cutting themes of how research in education is conceptualised characterised contextualised legitimated and represented Contributions include specially commissioned essays critical commentaries vignettes dialogues and cases Each section discusses the significance of a complex terrain of ideas and critiques that can inform thinking and practice in educational research The result is a thorough and accessible volume that offers fresh insights into the perspectives and challenges that shape diverse genres of research in education International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee, Phillip Brown, A. Lin Goodwin, Andy Green, 2023-11-20 The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127 chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world Education in Radical Uncertainty Stephen Carney,Ulla Ambrosius Madsen,2021-07-15 Drawing upon the long tradition of recalcitrant thought in Western humanist scholarship this book rethinks education and educational research at a time of intense social transformation By revisiting a range of post foundational ideas and developing their own methodological experiment Stephen Carney and Ulla Ambrosius Madsen reimagine the possibilities for the comparative study of education Exploring the experiences of young people in Denmark South Korea and Zambia this book illustrates how these very different contexts are increasingly connected by common narratives of purpose as well as overheated promises of success Focusing on the writings of Jean Baudrillard the authors examine them in the context of works by other theorists of modernity to explore processes of simulation and disappearance that are shaping life worldwide In the process the authors paint a rich portrait of education and schooling as a site of joy hope pain and ambivalence Encompassing both theoretical and methodological innovation Education in Radical Uncertainty provides inspiration for scholars and students attempting to approach the fields of comparative education education policy and youth studies anew

Researching Private Supplementary Tutoring Mark Bray,Ora Kwo,Boris Jokić,2016-03-01 Private supplementary tutoring widely known as shadow education because of the way that it mimics mainstream schooling has greatly expanded worldwide It consumes considerable family resources provides employment for tutors occupies the time of students and has a backwash on regular schools Although such tutoring has become a major industry and a daily activity for students tutors and families the research literature has been slow to catch up with the phenomenon The topic is in some respects difficult to research precisely because it is shadowy Contours are indistinct and the actors may hesitate to share their experiences and perspectives Presenting methodological lessons from diverse cultures the book contains chapters from both high income and low income settings in Asia Caribbean Europe and the Middle East Separately and together the chapters present valuable insights into the design and conduct of research The book will assist both consumers and producers of research Consumers will become better judges of the strengths weaknesses and orientations of literature on the theme and producers will gain insights for design of instruments collection of data and interpretation of findings The editors Mark Bray is UNESCO Chair Professor in Comparative Education at the University of Hong Kong Ora Kwo is an Associate Professor in the Comparative Education Research Centre at the University of Hong Kong Boris Joki is a Scientific Associate in the Centre for Educational Research and Development at the Institute for Social Research in Zagreb Croatia
