De Semiofficiële En Particuliere Briefwisseling Tussen Jc Baud En Jj Rochussen 1845-1851:

Healers on the Colonial Market Liesbeth Hesselink, 2011-01-01 Healers on the Colonial Market is one of the few studies on the Dutch East Indies from a postcolonial perspective. It provides an enthralling addition to research on both the history of the Dutch East Indies and the history of colonial medicine. This book will be of interest to historians, historians of science and medicine and anthropologists. How successful were the two medical training programmes established in Jakarta by the colonial government in 1851? One was a medical school for Javanese boys and the other a school for midwives for Javanese girls and the graduates were supposed to replace native healers, the dukun. However, the indigenous population was not prepared to use the services of these doctors and midwives. Native doctors did in fact prove useful as vaccinators and assistant doctors, but the school for midwives was closed in 1875. Even though there were many horror stories of mistakes made during dukun-assisted deliveries, the school was not reopened and instead a handful of girls received practical training from European physicians. Under the Ethical Policy, there was more attention for the welfare of the indigenous population and the need for doctors increased. More native boys received medical training and went to work as general practitioners. Nevertheless, not everybody accepted these native doctors as the colleagues of European physicians. Exploring the Dutch Empire Catia Antunes, Jos Gommans, 2015-05-21 In 1602 the States General of the United Provinces of the Netherlands chartered the first commercial company, the Dutch East India Company, and in so doing initiated a new wave of globalization. Even though Dutch engagement in the Atlantic and Indian Oceans dates back to the 16th century, it was the dawn of the 17th century that brought the Dutch into the fold of the general movement of European expansion overseas and concomitant globalization. This volume surveys the Dutch participation in and contribution to the process of globalization. At the same time, it reassesses the various ways Dutchmen fashioned themselves following the encounter and in the light of increasing dialogue with other societies across the world. As such, Exploring the Dutch Empire offers a new insight into the macro and micro worlds of the global Dutchman in Asia, Africa and the Americas. The result fills a gap in the historiography on empire and globalization, which has previously been dominated by British and to a lesser extent French and Spanish cases. Het geheim van Paleis Kneuterdijk Wouter Hugenholtz, 2008-01-01 J. C. Baud was de langst dienende minister onder koning Willem II, 1840-1849. Hij stond aan het hoofd van het Departement van Koloniën, dat van cruciale betekenis was voor het herstel van de overheidsfinanciën. Het was de tijd waarin de Nederlandse staat nagenoeg bankroet was en slechts op de been werd gehouden door de koloniale baten die op Java met het Cultuurstelsel werden verkregen. Kort na de troonsbestijging van Willem II begon Baud aantekening te houden van de wekelijkse gesprekken die hij met de koning voerde over het koloniale beleid en ook over de binnenlandse politiek. In het bijzonder de herziening van de Grondwet. Baud heeft deze aantekeningen tot het einde van zijn ministerschap volgehouden. Zo ontstond een uniek document dat nagenoeg het hele koningschap van Willem II beslaat, namelijk de periode van januari 1841 tot maart 1848. De vijf kleine boekjes waarin Baud zijn aantekeningen maakte zijn altijd in familiebezit gebleven en hebben daar decennia lang een onzichtbaar bestaan geleid Door het vaak onleesbare handschrift was het niet eenvoudig om de aantekeningen op juiste waarde te schatten Systematische studie met aanvullende toelichting heeft van een reeks fragmentarische notities een spannend politiek verhaal gemaakt Dit boek werpt niet alleen een nieuw licht op het omstreden koningschap van Willem II maar gunt de lezer ook een blik in het politieke besluitvormingsproces gedurende een periode waarin nog geen sprake was van volledige ministeriële verantwoordelijkheid De aantekeningen illustreren de vooraanstaande rol die Baud als staatsman heeft gespeeld Indonesian Law 1949-1989 Pompe,2023-09-20 This work is unique since it is the first comprehensive bibliography on Indonesian Law listing materials in various languages including Russian Japanese and Chinese The bibliography is divided into various fields of law and each chapter starts with an introduction on the related field The growing economic importance of Indonesia and the increasing trade relations with this country call for an instrument on how to find the law in Indonesia This bibliography will fill this gap as it includes all material on Indonesian law in a non Indonesian language which has been published since 1949 Along the Archival Grain Ann Laura Stoler,2010-01-25 Along the Archival Grain offers a unique methodological and analytic opening to the affective registers of imperial governance and the political content of archival forms In a series of nuanced mediations on the nature of colonial documents from the nineteenth century Netherlands Indies Ann Laura Stoler identifies the social epistemologies that guided perception and practice revealing the problematic racial ontologies of that confused epistemic space Navigating familiar and extraordinary paths through the lettered lives of those who ruled she seizes on moments when common sense failed and prevailing categories no longer seemed to work She asks not what colonial agents knew but what happened when what they thought they knew they found they did not Rejecting the notion that archival labor be approached as an extractive enterprise Stoler sets her sights on archival production as a consequential act of governance as a field of force with violent effect and not least as a vivid space to do ethnography Histories of Scale: Java, the Indies and Asia in the Imperial Age, 1820-1945. Vincent Houben,2021-08-19 This major study explores the spatial history of the Dutch East Indies as an imperial formation between the early nineteenth century and the end of empire It consists of six in depth case studies on pertinent themes such as rural capitalism indirect colonial rule border politics coolie circulations un modern nationalism and the beginning of Indonesian independence These studies are set within a novel theory which connects local intra imperial transimperial and global history in the format of specific topochnones As such this book is a contribution both to Indonesian transcultural history and the field of New Area Studies De semi-officiële en particuliere briefwisseling tussen J.C. Baud en J.J. Rochussen 1845-1851 en enige daarop betrekking hebbende andere stukken Jean Chrétien Baud,Jan Jacob Rochussen,W. A. Baud,1983 Trade and Empire in Early Nineteenth-century Southeast Asia G. R. Knight,2015 Discusses the complexities of a trading network in this period outlining commodity chains links between colonies and colonial centres and tensions between local polities and competing empires Catholics in Indonesia, 1808-1903 Karel Steenbrink, 2021-07-26 This first of two volumes documents the history of the Roman Catholic Church in Indonesia from 1808 when after two centuries priests were again allowed in the Dutch colony until 1903 when the the number of Catholics only 27 000 at the time started to grow spectacularly The story of slow growth among the indigenous population with many setbacks is illustrated by 98 documents which are included in their complete format and original language mostly Dutch Half of the book contains a lengthy introduction in which the history of Catholic missionary effort is spelled out with of course a lot of attention for the islands where the Catholic clergy was actively engaged in proselytizing This introduction is the first survey in English on the subject Being "Dutch" in the Indies Ulbe Bosma, Remco Raben, 2008 Being Dutch in the Indies portrays Dutch colonial territories in Asia not as mere societies under foreign occupation but rather as a Creole empire Most of colonial society up to the highest levels consisted of people of mixed Dutch and Asian descent who were born in the Indies and considered it their home but were legally Dutch
