© 2006 by the University of North Carolina

The following sample questions are selected to show format and content of questions on the Acquainted subtest of the test. Remembering these samples will give you a good idea of how the test works and give you an idea of your strengths and weakness skills you may wish to practice before taking the test itself. One question on answering questions with the information on provided cues, we really provide the three answers, and there are also one more. The correct answer will be indicated with your choosing about your answers.

We suggest that you follow these steps:

1. Take your time. The test is not timed. Pacing and choice is yours carefully without worrying about the clock ticking.
2. Read carefully. Be sure to understand exactly what each question requires.
3. Think carefully. The test requires you to recognize or select the information for each of given answers. Answers should follow what the passage says.
4. Write down choosing an answer. The correct answer is indicated with answer. The test is designed to give you a better understanding.
