Conscience And Calling Ethical Reflections On Catholic Womens Church Vocations:

Conscience and Calling Anne E. Patrick, 2013-08-15 This volume probes the meaning and ethical implications of the powerful symbol of vocation in a transformed social context Patrick analyzes the complex responses of Catholic women to injustice and describes a post Vatican II shift in understandings of virtue with particular attention to the experiences of U S sisters and laywomen Intended as a follow up to Liberating Conscience Feminist Explorations in Catholic Moral Theology P 4 of cover

Conscience and Calling Anne E. Patrick, 2013-07-18 This volume probes the meaning and ethical implications of the powerful symbol of vocation from the vantage of contemporary Catholic women with particular attention to the experiences of women religious Intended as a follow up to Liberating Conscience Feminist Explorations in Catholic Moral Theology the new book will benefit many readers including Catholic leaders laity and religious as well as persons interested in Christian ethics and American religious history more generally The work treats twentieth century history and more recent developments including tensions between the Vatican and progressive Catholics the development of lay ministries and the movement to ordain women deacons priests and bishops

The Church in the Modern World Erin Brigham, 2014-12-31 The Church in the Modern World Fifty Years after Gaudium et Spes commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the Second Vatican Council s Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World Featuring scholars from the Joan and Ralph Lane Center for Catholic Studies and Social Thought this book offers a future orientated analysis by highlighting contemporary social issues through the lens of Gaudium et Spes In part I authors examine the historical political and social significance of the document Part II presents interdisciplinary perspectives on current social issues in light of Gaudium et Spes and contemporary Catholic social thought The book covers such topics as immigration women in the Church environmental ethics human rights economic justice the Church in Africa and liberation theology

Conflict and Collaboration Catherine Gerard, Louis Kriesberg, 2018-05-11 In this volume scholars from different disciplines join together to examine the overlapping domains of conflict and collaboration studies It examines the relationships between ideas and practices in the fields of conflict resolution and collaboration from multiple disciplinary perspectives The central theme is that conflict and collaboration can be good bad or even benign depending on a number of factors These include the role of power design of the process itself skill level and intent of the actors social contexts and world views The book demonstrates that various blends of conflict and collaboration can be more or less constructively effective It discusses specific cases analytical methods and interventions and emphasizes both developing propositions and reflecting on specific cases and contexts The book concludes with specific policy recommendations for many sets of actors those in peacebuilding social movements governments and communities plus students of conflict studies This book will be of much interest to students scholars and practitioners of peace and conflict studies public administration sociology and political science

Conscience and Catholic Health Care DeCosse, David E., Nairn, Thomas A, 2017-03-16 Drawn from a two day symposium at Santa Clara University Conscience and

Catholic Health Care provides a timely and up to date assessment of the Catholic understanding of conscience and how it relates to day to day issues in Catholic health care The contributors explore a wide range of topics including end of life care abortion and sterilization and the role of Catholic ethics particularly in hospital settings With insights from key figures this book will serve as a useful text and reference for medical students and practitioners as well as a resource for ethics boards and chaplains in Catholic hospitals most especially those merging with secular health institutions In addition to the editors contributors include Ron Hamel Anne E Patrick Roberto Dell Oro Lisa Fullam Kristin E Heyer John J Paris M Patrick Moore Jr Cathleen Kaveny Lawrence J Nelson Kevin T FitzGerald SJ Gerald Coleman Margaret R McLean Shawnee M Daniels Sykes and Carol Taylor Publisher Water Shaping Stone Kathryn Lilla Cox,2016-01-15 The Catholic Tradition requires the faithful to form and follow their conscience This is the case even with the recognition that consciences can be malformed and one can make errors in practical judgments Water Shaping Stone examines various aspects of this tradition regarding conscience by using among other sources twentieth century magisterial documents theologians works and Scripture Kathryn Lilla Cox argues that while the Magisterium retains teaching authority and a responsibility to help form consciences through its teaching focusing only on the Magisterium leads to incomplete formation A more holistic vision of conscience formation means considering the formation of the moral agent to be a multifaceted process that draws on for example teaching prayer rituals Scripture practices and virtues along with relationships with the Triune God and communities of accountability This vision of conscience formation retains the magisterial teaching authority while acknowledging discipleship as the theological basis for making and assessing practical judgments of conscience A Church with Open Doors Richard R. Gaillardetz,Edward P. Hahnenberg,2015-05-06 Catholic ecclesiology stands at the threshold of a new moment in the reception of the Second Vatican Council The election of Pope Francis coinciding with the fiftieth anniversary of the council has inspired a fresh consideration of its teaching in such diverse areas as ecumenism inculturation missiology and ministry The chapters in this volume have their origin in a special symposium that called together over forty of the leading Catholic scholars from throughout North America in order to discuss the future of theological reflection on the church The nine essays in this volume guided that conversation and offer an entry into some of the most pressing issues in ecclesiology today

Women Engaging the Catholic Social Tradition Brigham, Erin M.,Johnson, Mary,2022 The Catholic Social Tradition has concentrated on the labor of white males and assumes a patriarchal structure But where are women in most papal documents and commentaries on them Where is the home Where are women of color and where are women who toil in non unionized sectors such as domestic work Where are the women in the teachings aimed at achieving justice for migrants These essays written for this collection examine these issues and use the framework of Catholic Social teaching as a context for broadening the understanding of the Church s teaching and of scholarship Reproductive Justice and the Catholic Church Emily Reimer-Barry,2024-06-10 Pregnancy loss is profoundly complex ambiguous and alienating but telling women who have procured abortions that they are murderers and sinners is not the best way forward Magisterial teachings on abortion are too often presented as moral absolutes when in fact moral absolutism distorts the rich wisdom of the Catholic intellectual tradition This book initiates a new conversation about women s experiences of miscarriage stillbirth and abortion arguing that we need not approach these difficult life experiences in a simplistic way Dr Reimer Barry argues that both the pro life and pro choice movements make important and valuable claims yet each approach on its own is flawed Drawing on the framework of reproductive justice together with Catholic social teaching Dr Reimer Barry suggests a new way forward for abortion discourse that takes seriously the full human dignity of women and the intrinsic though not absolute value of prenatal life She argues that instead of thinking of the Church as a moral teacher with leaders in Rome or Washington DC dictating to the consciences of the faithful a better way to address the complexity of difficult pregnancy discernments would be to think of the Church as a community of support in the midst of and after difficult discernments a community that seeks justice together and implements structural reforms while also providing spiritual care to those in need What women deserve is justice

Feminist Catholic Theological Ethics: Conversations in the World Church Hogan, Linda ,Orobator, A.E.,2014-04-10 The growing body of feminist literature in the late 20th and early 21st centuries demonstrates the phenomenal advances of feminist thought and movements in the context of church and society Characteristic of this growth is the re location of issues from the global North and broadening of focus to include voices from the global South In the context of globalization new vistas and voices are emerging that trace new directions and seek to rephrase the central questions in the feminist discourse This volume aims to highlight the changing face and color of feminist theological discourse recognize innovative research in the field and facilitate a global conversation among feminists engaged in theological ethics in the world church
