Chris Ware Building Stories:

Building Stories Chris Ware, 2012-10-02 From the author of Jimmy Corrigan The Smartest Kid on Earth comes one of the most acclaimed graphic novels of all time 14 distinctively discrete Books Booklets Magazines Newspapers and Pamphlets One of the most important pieces of art I have ever experienced The New Republic With the increasing electronic incorporeality of existence sometimes it's reassuring perhaps even necessary to have something to hold on to Thus within this colorful keepsake box the purchaser will find a fully apportioned variety of reading material ready to address virtually any imaginable artistic or poetic taste from the corrosive sarcasm of youth to the sickening earnestness of maturity while discovering a protagonist wondering if she'll ever move from the rented close quarters of lonely young adulthood to the mortgaged expanse of love and marriage Whether you're feeling alone by yourself or alone with someone else this book is sure to sympathize with the crushing sense of life wasted opportunities missed and creative dreams dashed which afflict the middle and upper class literary public and which can return to them in somewhat damaged form during REM sleep A pictographic listing of all 14 items 260 pages total appears on the back with suggestions made as to appropriate places to set down forget or completely lose any number of its contents within the walls of an average well appointed home As seen in the pages of The New Yorker The New York Times and McSweeney's Quarterly Concern Building Stories collects a decade's worth of work with dozens of never before published pages i.e. those deemed too obtuse filthy or just plain incoherent to offer to a respectable periodical

Chicago Frederik Byrn Køhlert,2021-09-23 Chicago occupies a central position in both the geography and literary history of the United States From its founding in 1833 through to its modern incarnation the city has served as both a thoroughfare for the nation s goods and a crossroads for its cultural energies The idea of Chicago as a crossroads of modern America is what guides this literary history which traces how writers have responded to a rapidly changing urban environment and labored to make sense of its place in and implications for the larger whole In writing that engages with the world s first skyscrapers and elevated railroads extreme economic and racial inequality a growing middle class ethnic and multiethnic neighborhoods the Great Migration of African Americans and the city s contemporary incarnation as a cosmopolitan urban center Chicago has been home to a diverse literature that has both captured and guided the themes of modern America

Chris Ware Jean Braithwaite,2016-12-05 Virtuoso Chris Ware b 1967 has achieved some noteworthy firsts for comics The Guardian First Book Award for Jimmy Corrigan The Smartest Kid on Earth was the first major UK literary prize awarded for a graphic novel In 2002 Ware was the first cartoonist included in the Whitney Biennial Like Art Spiegelman or Alison Bechdel Ware thus stands out as an important crossover artist who has made the wider public aware of comics as literature His regular New Yorker covers give him a central place in our national cultural conversation Since the earliest issues of ACME Novelty Library in the 1990s cartoonist peers have acclaimed Ware s distinctive meticulous visual style and technical innovations to the medium Ware also remains a literary author of the highest caliber spending many years to create thematically complex graphic masterworks such as Building Stories and the ongoing Rusty Brown Editor Jean Braithwaite compiles interviews displaying both Ware s erudition and his quirky self deprecation They span Ware s career from 1993 to 2015 creating a time lapse portrait of the artist as he matures Several of the earliest talks are reprinted from zines now extremely difficult to locate Braithwaite has selected the best broadcasts and podcasts featuring the interview shy Ware for this volume including new transcriptions An interview with Marnie Ware from 2000 makes for a delightful change of pace as she offers a generous supremely lucid attitude toward her husband and his work Candidly and humorously she considers married life with a cartoonist in the house Brand new interviews with both Chris and Marnie Ware conclude the volume

PathoGraphics Susan Merrill Squier,Irmela Marei Krüger-Fürhoff,2020-06-08 Culturally powerful ideas of normalcy and deviation individual responsibility and what is medically feasible shape the ways in which we live with illness and disability The essays in this volume show how illness narratives expressed in a variety of forms biographical essays fictional texts cartoons graphic novels and comics reflect on and grapple with the fact that these human experiences are socially embedded and culturally shaped Works of fiction addressing the impact of an illness or disability autobiographies and memoirs exploring an experience of medical treatment and comics that portray illness or disability from the perspective of patient family member or caregiver all of these narratives forge a specific aesthetic in order to communicate their understanding of the human condition This collection demonstrates what can emerge when scholars and artists interested in fiction life writing and comics collaborate to explore how various media portray illness medical treatment and disability Rather than stopping at the limits of genre or medium the essays talk across fields exploring together how works in these different forms craft narratives and aesthetics to negotiate contention and build community around those experiences and to discover how the knowledge and experiences of illness and disability circulate within the realms of medicine art the personal and the cultural Ultimately they demonstrate a common purpose to examine the ways comics and literary texts build an audience and galvanize not just empathy but also action In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Einat Avrahami Maureen Burdock Elizabeth J Donaldson Ariela Freedman Rieke Jordan stef lenk Leah Misemer Tahneer Oksman Nina Schmidt and Helen Spandler Chapter 7 Crafting Psychiatric Contention Through Single Panel Cartoons by Helen Spandler is available as Open Access courtesy of a grant from the Wellcome Trust A link to the OA version of this chapter is forthcoming

Work in Progress Rieke Jordan, 2019-05-02 Work in Progress Curatorial Labor in Twenty First Century American Fiction interrogates contemporary texts that showcase forms of reading practices that feel anachronistic and laborious in times of instantaneity and short buffering times Objects of analysis include the graphic narrative Building Stories by Chris Ware the music album Song Reader by the indie rock artist Beck Hansen and the computer game Kentucky Route Zero by the programming team Cardboard Computer These texts stage their fragmentary nature and alleged unfinishedness as a quintessential part of both their narrative and material modus operandi These works in and of progress feel both contemporary and retro in the 21st century They draw upon and work against our expectations of interactive art in the digital age incorporating and likewise rejecting digital forms and practices This underlines the material and narrative flexibilities of the objects for no outcome or reading experience is the same or can be replicated It becomes apparent that the texts presuppose a reader who invests her spare time in figuring these texts out diagnosing a contorted work leisure dichotomy working these stories out is a significant part of the reading experience for the reader curatorial labor This conjures up a reader who as the author argues is turned into a curator and creative entity of and in these texts for she implements and reassembles the options made available

Memory, Intermediality, and Literature Sara Tanderup Linkis, 2019-04-16 If readers of Sara Tanderup Linkis Something to hold on to open the book in the expectation of entering a niche of literature and literary studies they will leave it after having encountered a new highway in literature Here the traditional theme of memory and the most recent use of digital media merge into a new understanding of the role of the book in the contemporary media landscape and of vicissitudes of memorial processes literature which also offers a broader perspective on literature in human history Spurred by Sara Tanderup Linkis sharp eye the readings of texts are lucid engaging and offers so many ideas that teachers will renew their curricula and readers will open the internet for more or rush to the library Svend Erik Larsen professor emeritus Memory Intermediality and Literature investigates how selected literary works use intermedial strategies to represent and perform cultural memory Drawing on the theoretical perspectives of cultural memory studies this engaging reader friendly monograph examines new materialism and intermediality studies analyzing works by Alexander Kluge W G Sebald Jonathan Safran Foer Anne Carson Mette Hegnh j William Joyce J J Abrams and Doug Dorst The works emerge out of different traditions and genres ranging from neo avant garde montages through photo novels and book objects to apps and children s stories In this new monograph Sara Tanderup Linkis presents an interdisciplinary and comparative approach reading the works together across genres and decades and combining the perspectives of memory studies and materialist and media oriented analysis This approach makes it possible to argue that the works not only use intermedial strategies to represent memory but also to remember literature reflecting on the changing status and function of literature as a mediator of cultural memory in the age of new media Thus the works may be read as reactions to modern media culture suggesting the ways in which literature and memory are affected by new media and technologies photography and television as well as iPads and social media

Literature of Suburban Change Dines Martin Dines,2020-03-02 Explores how American writers articulate the complexity of twentieth century suburbiaExamines the ways American writers from the 1960s to the present including John Updike Richard Ford Gloria Naylor Jeffrey Eugenides D J Waldie Alison Bechdel Chris Ware Jhumpa Lahiri Junot Daz and John Barth have sought to articulate the complexity of the US suburbsAnalyses the relationships between literary form and the spatial and temporal dimensions of the environment Scrutinises increasingly prominent literary and cultural forms including novel sequences memoir drama graphic novels and short story cyclesCombines insights drawn from recent historiography of the US suburbs and cultural geography with analyses of over twenty five texts to provide a fresh outlook on the literary history of American suburbiaThe Literature of Suburban Change examines the diverse body of cultural material produced since 1960 responding to the defining habitat of twentieth century USA the suburbs Martin Dines analyses how writers have innovated across a range of forms and genres including novel sequences memoirs plays comics and short story cycles in order to make sense of the complexity of suburbia Drawing on insights from recent historiography and cultural geography Dines offers a new perspective on the literary history of the US suburbs He argues that by giving time back to these apparently timeless places writers help reactivate the suburbs presenting them not as fixed finished and familiar but rather as living multifaceted environments that are still in production and under exploration

Emerging Genres in New Media Environments Carolyn R. Miller,Ashley R. Kelly,2016-11-25 This volume explores cultural innovation and transformation as revealed through the emergence of new media genres New media have enabled what impresses most observers as a dizzying proliferation of new forms of communicative interaction and cultural production provoking multimodal experimentation and artistic and entrepreneurial innovation Working with the concept of genre scholars in multiple fields have begun to explore these processes of emergence innovation and stabilization Genre has thus become newly important in game studies library and information science film and media studies applied linguistics rhetoric literature and elsewhere Understood as social recognitions that embed histories ideologies and contradictions genres function as recurrent social actions helping to constitute culture Because genres are dynamic sites of tension between stability and change they are also sites of inventive potential Emerging Genres in New Media Environments brings together compelling papers from scholars in Brazil Canada England and the United States to illustrate how this inventive potential has been harnessed around the world
