Saints and Sanctity in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Alexandre Coello de la Rosa, Linda G. Jones, 2020-01-22 A common objective of saint veneration in all three Abrahamic religions is the recovery and perpetuation of the collective memory of the saint Christianity Judaism and Islam all yield intriguing similarities and differences in their respective conceptions of sanctity This edited collection explores the various literary and cultural productions associated with the cult of saints and pious figures as well as the socio historical contexts in which sainthood operates in order to better understand the role of saints in monotheistic religions Using comparative religious and anthropological approaches an international panel of contributors guides the reader through three main concerns They describe and illuminate the ways in which sanctity is often configured In addition the diverse cultural manifestations of the cult of the saints are examined and analysed Finally the various religious social and political functions that saints came to play in numerous societies are compared and contrasted This ambitious study covers sanctity from the Middle Ages until the contemporary period and has a geographical scope that includes Europe Central Asia North Africa the Americas and the Asian Pacific As such it will be of use to scholars of the history of religions religious pluralism and interreligious dialogue as well as students of sainthood and hagiography

Cultural Security in Contemporary China and Mongolia Jarmila Ptáková, Ondrej Klimes, 2025-10-01 Cultural Security in Contemporary China and Mongolia applies the term cultural security not exclusively to state or institution implemented processes but also considers the indigenous bottom up and inside out mechanisms of establishing and maintaining communal cultural security of an ethnic group Markers of cultural identity differ according to an inside and outside perspective and can be re defined according to inner or outer circumstances Importance of these markers increases when a community feels endangered in their cultural existence or diminishes when perceived cultural identity is not questioned The dynamics shaping cultural security are illustrated in examples of ethnic communities in the People s Republic of China and in Mongolia
