Christian Meditation:

One Breath at a Time J. Dana Trent, 2019-01-01 In secular mainstream America meditation has become as ubiquitous as yoga But how does meditation fit into Christianity and how does it differ from prayer One Breath at a Time A Skeptic's Guide to Christian Meditation reframes meditation for those who are skeptical because 1 they doubt their ability to be still and quiet and 2 they doubt the validity of meditation as a Christian spiritual practice Using scripture theology and examples from the early church this book challenges the prayer habits of Christians that leave little room for enough silence to experience and listen for God Using five approaches breath meditation lectio divina centering meditation loving kindness meditation and devotional meditation One Breath at a Time provides a practical 40 day guide to beginning and sustaining a Christian meditation practice in an often chaotic world

Christian Meditation Edmund P. Clowney, 2002 What place does meditation have in Christian devotion Is the same thing as the Christian Meditation Hans Urs Von Balthasar, 2011-10-12 While von Balthasar's classic Prayer is unparalleled in its development of the Trinitarian Christological Mariological and ecclesiological dimensions of prayer Christian Meditation is a short readable and eminently practical guide to that form of prayer which God's revelation in Jesus Christ has made indispensable meditation on the word of God revealing the inner depths of God to man and since it comes from God made man the inner depths of man to himself In a treatment that is both fresh and profound Balthasar describes the central elements of all Christian meditation provides a guide for making the meditation and then points the way to the union that prayer achieves in the footsteps of Mary within the Church and in and for the world Consequently Christian meditation is entirely trinitarian and at the same time entirely human In order to find God no one need reject being human personally or socially but in order to find God all must see the world and themselves in the Holy Spirit as they are in God's sight Hans Urs von Balthasar
