concept of actual grace establishing how God can move the will without compelling it and providing a richly developed context for understanding God's motive influence. The second part examines three principal heresies concerning grace namely Pelagianism, Semi-Pelagianism and the Reformation doctrines using these as a basis for evaluating the Catholic dogmas about grace that were articulated against them. Finally in the third part Scheeben explores the necessity of grace in light of man's fallen condition and his supernatural end.

Encyclopedia of Catholic Social Thought, Social Science, and Social Policy Michael L. Coulter, Richard S. Myers, Joseph A. Varacalli, 2012-04-05. The two original volumes of the Encyclopedia of Catholic Social Thought, Social Science and Social Policy were published in 2007. Those two volumes included 848 entries from nearly 300 contributors and included a wide range of entries in three general categories: entries exploring Catholic social thought at a theoretical level; entries reflecting the learning of various social science and humanistic disciplines as this learning relates to Catholic social thought; and entries examining specific social policy questions. This third supplemental volume continues the approach of the original two. First the volume includes entries that explore Catholic social thought at its broadest, most theoretical level for example an entry on Pope Benedict's important social encyclical Caritas in Veritate. Second the volume includes entries that discuss recent social science research that bears on issues important to Catholic social thought for example an entry on the social costs of pornography draws on recent research on the topic. Third the volume includes entries discussing specific issues of social policy that have become increasingly important in recent years for example an entry on embryo adoption and or rescue. This third volume contains 202 entirely new entries from over 100 contributors. The contributors include distinguished scholars such as Father Robert John Araujo, S.J., Loyola University of Chicago; Father Kevin L. Flannery, S.J., Gregorian University; Robert P. George, Princeton University; William E. May, John Paul Institute and the Culture of Life Foundation; D.Q. McInerney, Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary; and Michael Novak, Ave Maria University. The work will appeal to anyone who is looking for a clear and accurate introduction to Catholic social thought.

Masterpieces of Catholic Literature in Summary Form Frank Northen Magill, 1965. Like a Cliffs Notes for theology, this volume contains condensed versions of major writings by saints, Catholic theologians and Popes.
