Victor Turner and Contemporary Cultural Performance Graham St. John, 2008 In the twenty years following Victor Turner's death interventions on the interconnected performance modes of play drama and community dimensions of which Turner deemed the limen and experimental and analytical forays into the anthropologies of experience and consciousness have complemented and extended Turnerian readings on the moments and sites of culture's becoming Examining Turner's continued relevance in performance and popular culture pilgrimage and communitas as well as Edith Turner's role the contributors reflect on the wide application of Victor Turner's thought to cultural performance in the early twenty first century and explore how Turner's ideas have been re engaged renovated and repurposed in studies of contemporary cultural performance

Experiential and Performative Anthropology in the Classroom Pamela R. Frese, Susan Brownell, 2020-07-08 The contributors gathered here revitalize ethnographic performance the performed recreation of ethnographic subject matter pioneered by Victor and Edith Turner and Richard Schechner as a progressive pedagogy for the 21st century They draw on their experiences in utilizing performances in a classroom setting to facilitate learning about the diversity of culture and ways of being in the world The editors themselves both students of Turner at the University of Virginia and Richard Schechner share recollections of the Turners vision and set forth a humanistic pedagogical agenda for the future A detailed appendix provides an implementation plan for ethnographic performances in the classroom

Ritual, Performance, Media Felicia Hughes-Freeland, 2003-12-16 Ritual Performance and Media are significant areas of study which are essential to anthropology and are often surprisingly overlooked This book brings a more anthropological perspective to debates about media consumption performativity and the characteristics of spectacle which have transformed cultural studies over the past decade

The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance Daphne Lei, Charlotte McIvor, 2020-04-02 The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance explores ground breaking new directions and critical discourse in the field of intercultural theatre and performance while surveying key debates concerning interculturalism as an aesthetic and ethical series of encounters in theatre and performance from the 1960s onwards The handbook's global coverage challenges understandings of intercultural theatre and performance that continue to prioritise case studies emerging primarily from the West and executed by elite artists By building on a growing field of scholarship on intercultural theatre and performance that examines minoritarian and grassroots work the volume offers an alternative and multi vocal view of what interculturalism might offer as a theoretical keyword to the future of theatre and performance studies while also contributing an energized reassessment of the vociferous debates that have long accompanied its critical and practical usage in a performance context By exploring anew what happens when interculturalism and performance intersect as embodied practice The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance offers new perspectives on a seminal theoretical concept still as useful as it is controversial Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including a fully annotated bibliography this is the essential scholarly handbook for anyone working in intercultural theatre and performance and performance studies
