El Norte Or Bust! David Stoll, 2013 Debt is the hidden engine driving undocumented migration to the United States So argues David Stoll in this powerful chronicle of migrants moneylenders and swindlers in the Guatemalan highlands one of the locales that collectively are sending millions of Latin Americans north in search of higher wages As an anthropologist Stoll has witnessed the Ixil Mayas of Nebaj grow in numbers run out of land and struggle to find employment Aid agencies have provided microcredits to turn the Nebajenses into entrepreneurs but credit alone cannot boost productivity in crowded mountain valleys which is why many recipients have invested the loans in smuggling themselves to the United States Back home their remittances have inflated the price of land so high that only migrants can afford to buy it Thus more Nebajenses have felt obliged to borrow the large sums needed to go north So many have done so that even before the Great Recession hit the U S in 2008 many were unable to find enough work to pay back their loans triggering a financial crash back home Now migrants and their families are losing the land and homes they have pledged as collateral Chain migration moneylending and large families Stoll proposes have turned into pyramid schemes in which the poor transfer risk and loss to their near and dear
